

Nixon In Final Televised Appeal For Votes Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Richard M. Nixon makes a final televised appeal tonight for votes in an election that the pollsters declare is very close while Nixon aides predict a comfortable electoral margin.

The Republican presidential candidate will be the star of a couple of two-hour telethons on NBC, one beamed to Eastern audiences at 9-11 p.m. EST and the other broadcast in the West at 9-11 p.m. PST. These were Nixon's only announced public activities on the day before the balloting.

Herbert Klein, the nominee's manager of communications, forecast Sunday night that Nixon would get a minimum of 330 electoral votes, compared with 270 needed to win. He said that, if everything went right for Nixon, the GOP total might go as high as 450.

New York and Michigan were the only two big-vote states Klein conceded Nixon might lose.

Nixon, appearing Sunday on NBC's "Meet the Press" TV program, suggested President

Johnson has been trapped into giving up his trump card in negotiations with Hanoi because of Saigon's decision to avoid participation in the Paris peace talks at this time.

The Republican candidate also said that if elected, he would be willing to cooperate with Johnson in any way deemed helpful "to get the Paris negotiations off dead center."

As an example, he said he would gladly go to Paris or Saigon should Johnson decide that would help the peace cause.

Governorships Up For Grabs In 21 States

3-Way And 4-Way Contests Seen In 7 Battles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three-way races for governor, like the three-party presidential contest, offer wider choice—wider confusion—on ballots in six states in Tuesday's elections.

Another state, Wisconsin, has four candidates running for governor.

Governorships at stake in 14 other states are confined to battles between the two major parties.

The GOP now holds a nationwide 26-24 edge in governorships.

In Wisconsin's four-man race, Gov. Warren P. Knowles is running for re-election against Democratic Atty. Gen. Bronson C. LaFollette. Robert Wilkinson of the Socialist Workers Party and Adolph Wiegert of the Socialist Labor Party.

Prohibitionists have gubernatorial candidates in three states—Melvin E. Hawk in Indiana, Harry Miller Sr. in Iowa and Marshall Ucanper in Kansas.

Again, taxes are the chief issue in those three states in battles between GOP Secretary of State Edgar D. Whitcomb and Democratic Lt. Gov. Robert L. Rock in Indiana; Republican Robert D. Ray and Democratic state Treasurer Paul Franzburg in Iowa and Gov. Robert Dooking against GOP restaurant owner Rick Herman in Kansas.

Wayne Montgomery in Montana is the New Reform gubernatorial candidate for a party formed after Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota lost his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination to Hubert H. Humphrey.

Montana's race centers largely on Democratic Atty. Gen. Forrest H. Anderson's opposition to the 3 per cent state sales tax proposed by Republican Gov. Tim Babcock.

In Illinois, the campaign of Socialist Edward C. Gross has made little dent in the contest between Democratic Gov. Samuel H. Shapiro and Republican Richard B. Oilivie, a former federal prosecutor.

Leo Landberger's Taxpayers Revival candidacy in North Dakota has barely surfaced in the main bout between Democratic Gov. William L. Guy and Republican Robert B. McCarney.

The rest of the governorship races are the traditional two-party variety.

Delaware's Democratic Gov. Charles Terv Jr., the nation's oldest governor at 68, reminds voters he sent National Guardsmen to put down Wilmington rioting last April and left them there. But a recent heart attack dimmed his re-election prospects.

GOP opponent Russell W. Peterson implies he can send the guardsmen home by ending "fear and failure."

CRASH AND FIRE — An Orient man is in critical condition following a crash into a service station on Route 62 near the Pickaway Franklin County line Sunday. The driver received burns over more than 90 per cent of his body after the car exploded and caught fire inside the building.

Orient Man's Condition 'Critical' Following Crash

Willard Comer, 24, Route 2, Orient, is in critical condition following a high speed crash and a fire at a service station Sunday morning.

Comer was taken to Mt. Carmel Hospital for treatment of massive head injuries and burns over more than 90 per cent of his body. He was listed in critical condition by the hospital at noon Monday.

The Orient man was southbound on Route 62 at the junction of Harrisburg Road near the Pickaway-Franklin County line about 2:45 a.m. Sunday, when he lost control of his car. The vehicle was traveling at about 80 miles per hour, according to Sheriff's Deputy Bill Dountz.

The car went off Route 62 into the lot of a service station built between the two roads. It traveled 354 feet through the service area and into the empty garage where the car came to rest, exploded and caught fire.

THE driver was thrown about three feet from the right side of the car at the time of impact. The fire caused by the impact resulted in burns over most of Comer's body and heavy damages to the building owned by Donald Ford of Grove City. Firemen from the Harrisburg

Fire Department answered the call for help and were able to remove Comer from the burning building and put out the fire.

A charge of driving at speeds excessive for roads and conditions has been filed against Comer by the sheriff's department.

Heavy Turnout Expected At Polls Tuesday

Guessperts at the courthouse are estimating 14,000 of the near 16,000 registered voters in Pickaway County will go to the polls to vote Tuesday.

Almost 500 absentee votes have already been received by the local board of elections, which reports that this is a little high even for a presidential election year.

A straw vote was conducted by the Herald of more than 200 Pickaway Countians to determine how they would vote in the presidential election.

The poll, conducted the day before President Johnson ordered the cease-fire in Vietnam, showed Nixon leading with 47 per cent of the county vote, Wallace second with 30 per cent and Humphrey with 23 per cent of the vote in Pickaway County.

The question high in the minds of many people is whether or not voters will stand by Wallace at the polls and how much of an effect the cease-fire will have on the election.

For election night results call the Herald after 8 p.m. at 474-3131.

No Major War Action's Reported

PARIS (AP) — A woman revolutionary led a Viet Cong delegation into Paris today to join the peace talks. She pledged that the war in South Vietnam will continue as long as the United States "props up the puppet administration of Saigon."

Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, a member of National Liberation Front's central committee, said on her arrival from Moscow: "The population of South Vietnam ardently wishes for peace, but this peace cannot be dissociated from independence and liberty."

"As long as the American government has not renounced its aggressive aims and ... props up the puppet administration of Saigon ... the Vietnamese people will continue their struggle until final victory."

South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu has announced that his government will not send a delegation to the talks because it will not negotiate with the NLF as a separate entity. He said the boycott would continue until Saigon is assured of direct, serious talks with Hanoi.

U.S. officials privately feel Thieu's boycott will not wreck the peace discussion. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said he expects South Vietnam to join the talks sooner or later.

Kiesinger Opens Berlin Party Meet

BERLIN (AP) — Ignoring massive Communist protests, Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger opened the annual congress of his Christian Democratic party in West Berlin today with a call for the United States to "really fulfill" its role as leader of the North Atlantic defense alliance.

The Soviet Union and the East German government had accused the West German Christian Democrats of provocation in holding their congress here and demanded that it be canceled.

The Communists regard Berlin as a separate political entity. But the Bonn government considers West Berlin as part of West Germany.

There had been threats of reprisals by the Communists but the U.S.-British-French command here reported there had been no incidents after the four-day congress got under way. But police clashed with West Berlin leftist demonstrators protesting a move to disbar a lawyer.

In his opening address, Kiesinger dwelt chiefly on the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

"Every lessening of American interest in the alliance, every uncertainty in America's concept of the alliance must lead to a weakening and perhaps even to destruction of NATO," the chancellor told 700 delegates and guests in a heavily guarded congress hall.

The United States "must lead but not rule" in the West, he said, and emphasized a need for the NATO partners in Europe to play an "adequate part" in the alliance.

"But those who wish to share responsibility must be prepared to take responsibility and share the burden," he added.

Gunmen Escape With Coin Collection

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Two gunmen escaped with a coin collection valued at $100,000 Sunday after they tied a Canton family off five and left them on the living room floor.

The collection was taken from the basement office of John P. Muehlheim, 42, head of the Muehlheim Plastering Co.

Humphrey 'Politics Of Joy' Ends With Bang In Texas

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey ends his drive for the White House today the way he began it six months and seven days ago—bursting with "the politics of happiness and joy."

The reasons for his joy: An 11th hour spurt in the public opinion polls, a Texas-size welcome and endorsement from President Johnson, along with the biggest political rally for any candidate this year.

One last ticker tape parade and long hours under the lights of national television today end the up-and-down adventure that began last April for the 57-year-old Democrat.

Then he will fly across half a sleeping nation to his home in Waverly, Minn., to cast his ballot in an old frame country town hall and await the verdict of the electorate in his contest with Republican Richard M. Nixon.

President Johnson pulled out all the stops Sunday in urging that electorate to let him bequeath the White House to his longtime political comrade in arms.

Johnson then sat back and applauded regularly as Humphrey asked "a chance to give back what my country has given me."

"I have made no compromise with extremism in this campaign—extremism of the right or left—and I shall not compromise with it in the presidency," Humphrey vowed.

"I have sometimes set my face against the tide of public opinion as I shall lead that opinion in the presidency," he added.

Humphrey's running mate, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, joins him today for a motorcade through downtown Los Angeles. Tonight they appear together in a live telethon on the ABC network from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. EST, to the East Coast and 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. PST, to the West Coast.

Wallace Ends Campaign In Georgia, Heads Home

ATLANTA (AP) — George C. Wallace ends his presidential campaign today where it began, deep in Dixie, confident the nation will feel the impact of his candidacy whether he wins or loses the election.

Wallace speaks at a rally at the Georgia state capitol and then flies to Montgomery, Ala., where he will await Tuesday's election returns. He will motor to his hometown of Clayton, Ala., to cast his ballot. He appears tonight in taped half-hour programs on all three networks.

The third-party candidate contends that if he should deny an electoral majority to either of his opponents he will be able to specify some of the terms by which President Johnson's successor will govern.

In the event of an electoral stalemate, he says, "Whoever becomes the president is going to have to promise the American people what we have promised them if it happens to be somebody besides me."

On ABC's television panel program "Issues and Answers" Sunday Wallace repeated his contention that the election will never reach the House of Representatives even if no candidate wins a majority of electoral votes.

"If that contingency arises," Wallace said, "in my judgment the matter will be settled in the Electoral College. So all these candidates who are talking about the House of Representatives are going to be sadly fooled."

It takes 270 electoral votes to win. Should Richard M. Nixon and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Republican and Democratic frontrunners, finish close, Wallace's electoral total could be critical, however small.

"We have just as good a chance in the Electoral College if that contingency arises as do Mr. Humphrey or Mr. Nixon," Wallace said.

Rep. Bow Blasts Democrat's 'Smear'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Frank T. Bow, R-Ohio, has charged his Democratic opponent with defaming his character and misrepresenting his voting record.

In a complaint failed with the Fair Campaign Practices Committee, Bow said a pamphlet distributed by his opponent, Virgil L. Musser, pictured him as "an aging fool who clowned around for 18 years in the House" and voted against almost all legislation.

Republican Takeover Of U.S. Senate Seen Possibility

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats are expected to maintain control of the Senate in Tuesday's elections but some Republican gains are likely.

The Democrats, who have controlled the Senate the past 12 years, now have a 63 to 37 majority and even the Senate Republican Campaign Committee admits the GOP is unlikely to obtain the 14-seat turnover necessary for control.

But with Republicans hoping to pick up as many as 15 new Senate seats—and Democrats expecting five at most—a GOP takeover is not out of the question and gains more than likely.

In all, 23 Senate seats now held by Democrats are at stake Tuesday while only 11 held by Republicans are on the line.

A Democratic gain in Kentucky would also give the Senate its second lady member.

Democrat Katherine Peden, the only woman member of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders, is competing against Republican Marlow W. Cook and independent Duane Olson for the seat of retiring GOP Sen. Thurston B. Morton. Cook is favored but some observers believe his Catholicism could be a handicap.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, is the only woman senator now.

In the other Senate races: Alaska—Republicans hope incumbent Sen. Ernest Gruening's write-in candidacy will split the Democratic vote between him and Democrat Mike Gravel, and give Republican Elmer E. Rasmussen the election.

Arizona—Republican Barry Goldwater is heavily favored to defeat Democrat Roy Elson for the seat of retiring Democratic Sen. Carl Hayden.

Arkansas—Democratic Sen. J. W. Fulbright is favored to win re-election over Republican challenger Charles J. Bernard.

California—Former Democratic state Controller Alan Cranston is favored to defeat Republican Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty who beat incumbent Thomas H. Kuchel in the primary.

Colorado—Republican Sen. Peter H. Dominick is favored over Democratic former Gov. Stephen L.R. McNichols.

Connecticut—Democratic Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff is favored to defeat Republican Edwin H. May Jr.

Florida—Republican Rep. Edward J. Gurney is considered a strong favorite to defeat former Democratic Gov. LeRoy Collins for the seat being vacated by retiring Democratic Sen. George A. Smathers.

Georgia—Democratic Sen. Herman E. Talmadge is expected to be re-elected over Republican challenger E. Earl Patton Jr.

Hawaii—Democratic Sen. Daniel K. Inouye is expected to beat Republican Wayne C. Thiessen.

Idaho—Democratic Sen. Frank Church is still the favorite but Republicans think their Rep. George Hansen could win the traditionally Republican state.

Illinois—Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen is expected to be re-elected over Democratic Atty. Gen. William G. Clark.

Indiana—Democratic Sen. Birch Bayh is credited with a narrow lead but Republicans think a strong vote for Richard M. Nixon could give Republican William D. Ruckelshaus the Senate win.

Iowa—Democrats expect Gov. Harold E. Hughes to win retiring GOP Sen. Bourke B. Hickman's seat despite a strong challenge from Republican state Sen. David M. Stanley.

Kansas—Republican Rep. Robert Dole is considered almost certain to win retiring GOP Sen. Frank Carlson's seat over Democrat William I. Robinson.

Louisiana—Democratic Sen.

Russell B. Long is unopposed.

Maryland — Republicans expect independent George P. Mahoney to draw votes from incumbent Democratic Sen. Daniel B. Brewster and give the election to Republican Rep. Charles Mathias.

Missouri — Democratic Lt. Gov. Thomas F. Eagleton, who defeated Sen. Edward V. Long in the primary, is favored over Republican Rep. Thomas B. Curtis.

Nevada — Democratic Sen. Alan Bible is expected to turn back a strong challenge by Republican Lt. Gov. Ed Fike.

New Hampshire—Republican Sen. Norris Cotton describes himself as an underdog to former Democratic Gov. John W. King.

All Campaign Costs Totaled

$300 Million May Be Spent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Candidates for political office, from president to dogcatcher, will have spent between $250 million and $300 million by the time this year's campaign bills are paid.

A third of that total is being spent in pursuit of the presidency alone.

The estimates, compiled by experts in campaign financing, are supported by an Associated Press survey of political spending.

Aside from the presidential race, the costliest contests are those for major statewide office in the big states.

A hotly contested Senate race, such as in California, may involve expenditures of $5 million.

Even a campaign for a House seat may cost a lot with records showing House races in which more than $500,000 was spent.

All this spending is financed by contributions and loans—some large, many small. And some candidates dig deep into their own pockets for needed funds.

Herbert E. Alexander of the Citizens Research Foundation in Princeton, N.J., a recognized expert, estimates the total cost of 1968 political campaigning at $250 million to $275 million.

Stephen Horn, a senior research fellow with the Brookings Institution in Washington, estimates $250 million to $300 million.

It is impossible to obtain complete and accurate totals because of loose and varied laws regulating the reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures.

Federal law doesn't require any reports by candidates on their expenditures in winning party nominations. States have varying requirements; some have none at all.

Presidential and vice presidential candidates aren't required to file statements, although national committees working in their behalf must report expenditures to Congress.

The camps of the three leading contenders have provided The AP with these estimates of their costs for the general election campaign:

—Republicans Richard M. Nixon and Spiro T. Agnew, more than $20 million.

—Democrats Humphrey and Edmund S. Muskie, about $12 million.

—American Independents George C. Wallace and Curtis E. LeMay, $10 million to $20 million.

Jordanians Put Down Civil Strife

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — The Jordanian government announced it had put down an attempt today by a group of Palestinian commandos to foment civil strife in the kingdom.

In a broadcast King Hussein told his people guerrilla action against Israel would continue "purified from these stealthy treacherous elements."

The king's emotional speech over Amman Radio was the first official explanation of widespread shooting and demonstrations that swept Amman this morning.

A later communique from the interior ministry indicates the trouble was over—at least for the moment—but gave no word on casualties.

Diplomatic sources said the firing started when the army tried to arrest selected leaders of the Arab guerrilla organizations which have been raiding Israel from bases in Jordan.

This set off demonstrations in Palestinian refugee camps at Ashrafiya and Jabal Hussein.

The army surrounded the two camps and moved quickly to quell other demonstrations which developed in scattered sections of Amman. Sources said the demonstrators were dispersed after more than four hours of shooting.

Connecticut—Democratic Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff is favored to defeat Republican Edwin H. May Jr.

Florida—Republican Rep. Edward J. Gurney is considered a strong favorite to defeat former Democratic Gov. LeRoy Collins for the seat being vacated by retiring Democratic Sen. George A. Smathers.

Georgia—Democratic Sen. Herman E. Talmadge is expected to be re-elected over Republican challenger E. Earl Patton Jr.

Hawaii—Democratic Sen. Daniel K. Inouye is expected to beat Republican Wayne C. Thiessen.

Idaho—Democratic Sen. Frank Church is still the favorite but Republicans think their Rep. George Hansen could win the traditionally Republican state.

Illinois—Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen is expected to be re-elected over Democratic Atty. Gen. William G. Clark.

Indiana—Democratic Sen. Birch Bayh is credited with a narrow lead but Republicans think a strong vote for Richard M. Nixon could give Republican William D. Ruckelshaus the Senate win.

Iowa—Democrats expect Gov. Harold E. Hughes to win retiring GOP Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper's seat despite a strong challenge from Republican state Sen. David M. Stanley.

Kansas—Republican Rep. Robert Dole is considered almost certain to win retiring GOP Sen. Frank Carlson's seat over Democrat William I. Robinson.

Louisiana—Democratic Sen.

Russell B. Long is unopposed.

Maryland — Republicans expect independent George P. Mahoney to draw votes from incumbent Democratic Sen. Daniel B. Brewster and give the election to Republican Rep. Charles Mathias.

Missouri — Democratic Lt. Gov. Thomas F. Eagleton, who defeated Sen. Edward V. Long in the primary, is favored over Republican Rep. Thomas B. Curtis.

Nevada — Democratic Sen. Alan Bible is expected to turn back a strong challenge by Republican Lt. Gov. Ed Fike.

New Hampshire—Republican Sen. Norris Cotton describes himself as an underdog to former Democratic Gov. John W. King.

All Campaign Costs Totaled

$300 Million May Be Spent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Candidates for political office, from president to dogcatcher, will have spent between $250 million and $300 million by the time this year's campaign bills are paid.

A third of that total is being spent in pursuit of the presidency alone.

The estimates, compiled by experts in campaign financing, are supported by an Associated Press survey of political spending.

Aside from the presidential race, the costliest contests are those for major statewide office in the big states.

A hotly contested Senate race, such as in California, may involve expenditures of $5 million.

Even a campaign for a House seat may cost a lot with records showing House races in which more than $500,000 was spent.

All this spending is financed by contributions and loans—some large, many small. And some candidates dig deep into their own pockets for needed funds.

Herbert E. Alexander of the Citizens Research Foundation in Princeton, N.J., a recognized expert, estimates the total cost of 1968 political campaigning at $250 million to $275 million.

Stephen Horn, a senior research fellow with the Brookings Institution in Washington, estimates $250 million to $300 million.

It is impossible to obtain complete and accurate totals because of loose and varied laws regulating the reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures.

Federal law doesn't require any reports by candidates on their expenditures in winning party nominations. States have varying requirements; some have none at all.

Presidential and vice presidential candidates aren't required to file statements, although national committees working in their behalf must report expenditures to Congress.

The camps of the three leading contenders have provided The AP with these estimates of their costs for the general election campaign:

—Republicans Richard M. Nixon and Spiro T. Agnew, more than $20 million.

—Democrats Humphrey and Edmund S. Muskie, about $12 million.

—American Independents George C. Wallace and Curtis E. LeMay, $10 million to $20 million.

Plane Hijacked, Flies To Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A National Air Lines jet was hijacked today by a man described as a "black nationalist" Cuba with 53 passengers and seven crew members aboard.

The plane, flight 186, reached Havana's Jose Marti Airport at 11:11 a.m. EST.

Thirteen minutes after the plane took off from New Orleans for Miami, Capt. Antonio Hunter radioed the Houston control tower that he was being hijacked.

Later, the Federal Aviation Administration said, he made a second call to the Jacksonville FAA control center to report that the skyjacker was a black nationalist.

Close Election Battles Seen In Puerto Rico

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — A terrorist bomb wounded four policemen in an election eve attack today at the Texaco oil refinery in nearby Catano.

An explosion and fire Sunday hit two schools to be used as polling places in San Juan but police said they saw no connection between these and the blast at Texaco.

The incidents came as the votes of mainland Americans have suddenly become important in the five-party battle for control of Puerto Rico's executive mansion and the San Juan City Hall.

Damage to the Texaco refinery was reported minor. The four policemen were standing nearby at the time of the explosion and the wounds of one of them were regarded as serious.

Police said they were questioning a 24-year-old man reported seen running from the area shortly before the blast.

The bomb went off under a pipeline.

The interest in the votes of Americans is being highlighted by the fact that for the first time many major candidates in Tuesday's balloting are campaigning in English as well as Spanish. The have appeared on English-language television and radio stations are advertising in the island's English-language newspaper, the San Juan Star.

The voting takes place Tuesday. Unlike the mainland, voters in Puerto Rico are locked in 12,000 polling places and everybody votes at the same time, at 2 p.m.

There are about 40,000 persons from the mainland, most of them here for retirement, for the climate or to work in the island's industry. The population is 2.8 million. Only 5,000 to 8,000 continentals are among the 1.1 million registered voters. But the election is shaping up as one of the closest in Puerto Rican history, and the political contenders think a few thousand votes might swing the results.

Most continentals live in the San Juan area where Dona Felisa Rincon de Gautier is leaving the city hall after 20 years as mayor. A hard fight to succeed her is on between Jorge Font Saldana of the Popular Democratic party and Carlos Romero Barcelo of the New Progressive party. There are also four other candidates.

Dona Felisa, a veteran of the Popular party, is running for the island senate.

Puerto Rico's status is a major issue in the campaign. The Popular Party, headed by former four-time Governor Luis Munoz Marin, wants Puerto Rico to remain a commonwealth. Its candidate is Sen. Luis Negrón Lopez.

Luis A. Ferre, gubernatorial candidate of the new Progressive Party, wants statehood.

Incumbent Governor Roberto Sanchez Vilella, who was denied renomination by the Popular Party, heads a third-party force called Oplees Party, which supports the commonwealth.

The Statehood Republican Party and the Puerto Rico Independent Party also have fielded candidates.

Stock List Goes Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — Pre-election caution and doubt over the significance of the expanded peace talks accompanied a slow stock market decline early this afternoon.

The margin of losses over gains expanded to more than 350 issues on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down 1.1 at 349.9, with industrials off 2.6, rails off .2, and utilities off .1.

After a mixed opening, the market headed lower and gradually widened its losses as the session wore on.

The stock exchanges will be closed Tuesday for election.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down 5.04 at 943.37.

Absentee Ballots Could Swing Some Contests In Ohio

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the election just a day away, there are growing indications that major contests may be closer than expected earlier.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said today that absentee votes could be a big factor in the election Tuesday.

He said that, while totals are not available, local election boards report a larger-than-normal number of absentee ballot applications. More than 113,000 Ohioans voted by absentee ballot in 1964.

And State Democratic Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady predicted Sunday that the outcome of the election will be "dependent on how many voters stay at home."

"Citizens who stay at home Nov. 5 will be helping decide the election just as surely as those who vote," he said.

O'Grady urged every voter to go to the polls. "Every citizen who fails to exercise his voting privilege runs the risk of regretting it for four long years under leadership he didn't want," he said.

Meanwhile, political candidates were making a final thrust for votes.

Republican vice presidential nominee Spiro T. Agnew made a brief campaign stop in Canton Sunday and hammered at his favorite theme of law and order.

Ohio Records 36 Highway Deaths; Only July 4 Worse

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio recorded one of its grisliest weekends of the year on the highways, with at least 36 persons dying in traffic accidents.

It was the highest weekend traffic death toll of the year, except for the four-day Fourth of July weekend, when 42 died.

Three double-death accidents and one triple-death crash contributed to the high toll.

About half of the deaths occurred Sunday. The Associated Press count extends from Friday at 6 p.m. until midnight Sunday.

Among the victims was James F. Heaton Jr., 19, of Columbus, a promising Ohio State University freshman football player who had won praise for his play Friday in the frosh game against Indiana. Katie Long, 55, Quaker City, also was killed in that accident Sunday on Interstate 70 in Columbus.

Report Expulsion At Burial Place

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — An explosive charge rocked the occupied west bank town of Hebron today, killing an Arab boy and wounding two other Arabs, the army said. The charge was planted outside the sacred cave of the Machpelah.

It was the second bomb incident in less than a month at the cave, reputed burial place of the patriarch Abraham, and sacred to Jew and Moslem alike. On Oct. 9 a hand grenade allegedly thrown by a young Hebron boy wounded 42 Jews.

The cave has been the focal point of Jewish-Arab friction in Hebron since the occupation. Both faiths claim the right to worship there, but prayer schedules clash.

Auto Theft Try Reported To Police

Vic Ralston, 564 N. Pickaway St., reported to Circleville Police today that an unsuccessful attempt had been made to steal his car during the night.

Ralston said that he discovered the hood raised this morning. A wire had been attached to the solenoid of the car in an effort to start it without keys.

"We will not be afraid to use the term law and order," Agnew said, defending its use over the term "order and justice."

"And, in fact, we will do everything we can to restore law and order to this country."

Agnew issued a statement to newsmen calling on Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark to report on an FBI investigation being conducted in Chicago concerning potential voting irregularities.

He asked Clark "to report to the American people on the progress of this vital investigation and to assure the electorate that all steps are being taken to prevent a vote fraud in Tuesday's election."

Joining Saxbe in the motorcade were Gov. James A. Rhodes and Congressman Samuel L. Devine.

Saxbe's Democratic opponent, John J. Gilligan, planned a final flying tour of the state today to thank his supporters for their work in his behalf.

The tour was to take him to Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton and Cincinnati, where he planned to attend a final rally.

Hold 2 Men As Phony Bill Makers

CINCINNATI (AP) — Federal authorities were holding two men as a result of a raid on a rented garage in the Clifton area Saturday where a counterfeit money operation was discovered.

Approximately $50,000 bogus bills had just been printed, a Secret Service agent said shortly after the raid.

Also confiscated was a duplicating machine on which the bills were printed, and photographic negatives of genuine money in denominations of $1, $5, $20, $50 and $100.

Secret Service agents, a U. S. marshal and local police cooperated in the raid.

Agents said the two men were caught by surprise. One reportedly was armed with a revolver, but neither resisted arrest.

The garage was placed under surveillance after the owner notified authorities of the suspicious nature of the two — that they closed all doors and windows of the garage while working.

The owner said the two rented the garage about a week ago, saying they were going to use it as a base to print political handbills.

Two Young Motorists Fined $100 Each For Drag Racing

Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb fined two youths $100 and costs each for drag racing.

Wanda Fyffe, 18, 406 Ruth Ave., and Steven Benson Baker, 18, Lancaster, both pleaded guilty to the charges filed by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department.

In addition to the fine, each was given a 30 day suspended jail sentence and driver's license of each was suspended for 30 days.

The judge placed the pair on probation for three years. The alleged offense occurred on Route 56 in Wayne Twp.

Other local motorists appearing on the court docket were:

Gerald F. Baylous, 42, Kingston; $10 and costs for operating a tractor without a slow moving vehicle sign attached as required by law.

Harold Tatman, 36, Adelphi;

$24 bond forfeiture for driving on the wrong side of the road. Jerry Morrison, 19, Amanda; $19 bond forfeiture for operating an unsafe motor vehicle. Merle Presler, 41, Route 4; $20 and costs for speeding 80 miles per hour in a 60 mile zone.

Harold Chamberlain, 28, Route 1; $10 and costs for failure to attach a red flag to an extended load.

Ravmond Sisterman, 42, 209 E. Mill St.; $30 and costs for failure to maintain an assured clear distance in which to stop.

Thomas N. Jenkins, 19, 127 N. Court St.; $25 and costs with $15 of the fine suspended for failure to maintain an assured clear distance in which to stop.

Melvin Wilson; $30 and costs for making unnecessary noise with a motor vehicle by squealing its tires and $10 and costs for speeding 45 miles per hour in a 35 mile zone.

Ted Gillman, 18, Ashville; $30 and costs for operating a motor vehicle when he had no valid drivers license.

Motorists who live out of the area paid a total of $412 in fines, costs and bond forfeitures during the weekend.

4 Injured In Weekend Accidents

Four people were injured in two auto accidents over the weekend.

Lilly Persinger, 36, and Dorothy Mahorney, 57, both of Route 2, Williamsport, were injured when their car struck a 1,000-pound Holstein cow on Route 138 near Judas Road about 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

Both women were taken to Berger Hospital for emergency treatment of contusions and abrasions.

The Persinger car was heavily damaged and the cow, owned by Walter Huzar of near Clarksburg, was killed after being hurled 50 feet by the impact.

In the second accident Sheila and Aundra Lintner, ages 17 and 13-year-old, both of Route 2, were injured when the car they were in collided with a car driven by 21-year-old Linda Evans of 432 John St.

The Evans car was westbound on Route 22 about one mile east of Route 56 and 11 a.m. Sunday at the time of the accident. The Evans car had slowed down to make a left turn into a private drive when the second car, driven by Sheila Lintner, struck the Evans car in the back.

Lintner was cited by the State Highway Patrol for failure to maintain assured clear distance ahead.

lauded Thieu's boycott and charged that Johnson, when he decided to quit bombing the North, broke promises made at his Honolulu meeting with the South Vietnamese president.

"His action tarnished his country's image," said the Vietnam Guardian. "The brutal decision taken by Johnson, no doubt pressed by the deadline of the U.S. presidential election, will not help in any way to bring the Vietnam conflict to an honorable end."

U.S. and allied forces reported only light contacts with North Vietnamese army and Viet Cong units throughout South Vietnam Sunday, the U.S. Command said.

Two communiqués from the command today did not report a single major ground action. Military sources said all the enemy casualties reported occurred in small actions and none of them were initiated by the enemy.

The U.S. Command reported no significant actions along the Demilitarized Zone for the third consecutive day since President Johnson's order halting the bombing of North Vietnam Friday.

No shelling of major cities was reported since My Tho, in the Mekong Delta, was hit with 38 mortar rounds shortly before 1 a.m. Sunday, 28 hours after Johnson's order went into effect.

South Vietnamese headquarters, however, reported two light shelling of military installations where soldiers live with their families. A spokesman said two soldiers and four civilians were wounded and three houses were destroyed.

The U.S. Command's morning communiqué did not report a single ground action. South Vietnamese headquarters reported two skirmishes in which 16 enemy were killed and 12 taken prisoner. Government casualties were put at six wounded.

Air and naval offensives all across the South are now being pushed by the U.S. Command. The U.S. Navy said an allied river campaign aimed at strangling enemy supply lines from Cambodia has been under way since Oct. 16.

Puerto Rico's status is a major issue in the campaign. The Popular Party, headed by former four-time Governor Luis Munoz Marin, wants Puerto Rico to remain a commonwealth. Its candidate is Sen. Luis Negron Lopez.

Luis A. Ferke, gubernatorial candidate of the new Progressive Party, wants statehood.

Incumbent Governor Roberto Sanchez Vilella, who was denied renomination by the Popular Party, heads a third-party force called Oplees Party, which supports the commonwealth.

The Statehood Republican Party and the Puerto Rico Independent Party also have fielded candidates.

Stock List Goes Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — Pre-election caution and doubt over the significance of the expanded peace talks accompanied a slow stock market decline early this afternoon.

The margin of losses over gains expanded to more than 350 issues on the New York Stock Exchange.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down 1.1 at 349.9, with industrials off 2.6, rails off 2, and utilities off 1.

After a mixed opening, the market headed lower and gradually widened its losses as the session wore on.

The stock exchanges will be closed Tuesday for election.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down 5.04 at 943.37.

Absentee Ballots Could Swing Some Contests In Ohio

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the election just a day away, there are growing indications that major contests may be closer than expected earlier.

Secretary of State Ted W. Voevodsky said a big factor in the election Tuesday.

He said that, while totals are not available, local election boards report a larger-than-normal number of absentee ballot applications. More than 113,000 Ohioans voted by absentee ballot in 1964.

And State Democratic Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady predicted Sunday that the outcome of the election will be "dependent on how many voters stay at home."

"Citizens who stay at home Nov. 5 will be helping decide the election just as surely as those who vote," he said.

O'Grady urged every voter to go to the polls. "Every citizen who fails to exercise his voting privilege runs the risk of regretting it for four long years under leadership he didn't want," he said.

Meanwhile, political candidates were making a final thrust for votes.

Republican vice presidential nominee Spiro T. Agnew made a brief campaign stop in Canton Sunday and hammered at his favorite theme of law and order.

Ohio Records 36 Highway Deaths; Only July 4 Worse

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio recorded one of its grimmest weekends of the year on the highways, with at least 36 persons dying in traffic accidents.

It was the highest weekend traffic death toll of the year, except for the four-day Fourth of July weekend, when 42 died.

Three double-death accidents and one triple-death crash contributed to the high toll.

About half of the deaths occurred Sunday. The Associated Press count extends from Friday at 6 p.m. until midnight Sunday.

Among the victims was James F. Heaton Jr., 19, of Columbus, a promising Ohio State University freshman football player who had won praise for his play Friday in the frosh game against Indiana. Katie Long, 55, Quaker City, also was killed in that accident Sunday on Interstate 70 in Columbus.

At Burial Place

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — An explosive charge rocked the occupied west bank town of Hebron today, killing an Arab boy and wounding two other Arabs, the army said. The charge was planted outside the sacred cave of the Machpelah.

It was the second bomb incident in less than a month at the cave, reputed burial place of the patriarch Abraham, and sacred to Jew and Moslem alike. On Oct. 9 a hand grenade allegedly thrown by a young Hebron boy wounded 42 Jews.

The cave has been the focal point of Jewish-Arab friction in Hebron since the occupation. Both faiths claim the right to worship there, but prayer schedules clash.

Auto Theft Try Reported To Police

Vic Ralston, 564 N. Pickaway St., reported to Circleville Police today that an unsuccessful attempt had been made to steal his car during the night.

Ralston said that he discovered the hood raised this morning. A wire had been attached to the solenoid of the car in an effort to start it without keys.

"We will not be afraid to use the term law and order," Agnew said, defending its use over the term "order and justice."

"And, in fact, we will do everything we can to restore law and order to this country."

Agnew issued a statement to newsmen calling on Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark to report on an FBI investigation being conducted in Chicago concerning potential voting irregularities.

He asked Clark "to report to the American people on the progress of this vital investigation and to assure the electorate that all steps are being taken to prevent a vote fraud in Tuesday's election."

Republican U.S. Senate candidate William B. Saxbe planned to finish his campaign today with a motorcade from suburban Worthington to downtown Columbus for a mid-morning rally at his headquarters.

Joining Saxbe in the motorcade were Gov. James A. Rhodes and Congressman Samuel L. Devine.

Saxbe's Democratic opponent, John J. Gilligan, planned a final flying tour of the state today to thank his supporters for their work in his behalf.

The tour was to take him to Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton and Cincinnati, where he planned to attend a final rally.

John Schultz, 34, Jackson Center, when his vehicle hit another car head-on on a country road. Schultz was overtaking a third vehicle.

Fred Landavazo Jr., 35, Medway, and his wife Marilyn, 27, when another car apparently went left of center.

Richard Sherard, 52, Canton, a passenger in a car turning left off U.S. 21 near Navarre. The car in which Sherard was traveling was hit broadside by another vehicle.

John F. Neville, 25, Akron, crashed on Ohio 5 in Wayne County.

Michael Herbert Gleason, 19, Geneva, lost control of his car on U.S. 20 near Geneva.

Robert Powell, 24, Wyndham, crashed on Ohio 82 in Braceville Township.

Katie Long, 55, Quaker City, and James Heaton Jr., 19, Columbus, when Heaton's car crossed the Interstate 70 Median in Columbus and struck the car driven by Mrs. Long's husband.

Carole Johnston, 21, Lakewood, when she lost control of her car on Warren Road, Cleveland, and crashed into a tree.

Phillip Hudgen, 14, Eaton, passenger in a car that ran off an Eaton city Street and crashed.

Sylvester Kunz, 61, Cincinnati, of injuries suffered Saturday when struck by a car in Cincinnati.

John Stem, 50, Parma, and wife Florence, in a head-on crash on the Ohio Turnpike 10 miles west of the Ellyria interchange.

Dana P. Payne, 58, of Bidwell, Gallia County, died when the car in which he was riding overturned off Ohio 554 near Gallipolis.

David R. Booth, 29, of Columbus, was killed in a two-car collision at U.S. 23 and I-270 interchange north of Worthington.

Hold 2 Men As Phony Bill Makers

CINCINNATI (AP) — Federal authorities were holding two men as a result of a raid on a rented garage in the Clifton area Saturday where a counterfeit money operation was discovered.

Approximately $50,000 bogus bills had just been printed, a Secret Service agent said shortly after the raid.

Also confiscated was a duplicating machine on which the bills were printed, and photographic negatives of genuine money in denominations of $1, $5, $20, $50 and $100.

Secret Service agents, a U.S. marshal and local police cooperated in the raid.

Agents said the two men were caught by surprise. One reportedly was armed with a revolver, but neither resisted arrest.

The garage was placed under surveillance after the owner notified authorities of the suspicious nature of the two — that they closed all doors and windows of the garage while working.

The owner said the two rented the garage about a week ago, saying they were going to use it as a base to print political handbills.

Two Young Motorists Fined $100 Each For Drag Racing

Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb fined two youths $100 and costs each for drag racing.

Wanda Fyffe, 18, 405 Ruth Ave., and Steven Benson Baker, 18, Lancaster, both pleaded guilty to the charges filed by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department.

In addition to the fine, each was given a 30 day suspended jail sentence and driver's license of each was suspended for 30 days.

The judge placed the pair on probation for three years. The alleged offense occurred on Route 56 in Wayne Twp.

Other local motorists appearing on the court docket were:

Gerald F. Baylous, 42, Kingston; $10 and costs for operating a tractor without a slow moving vehicle sign attached as required by law.

Harold Tatman, 36, Adelphi;

$24 bond forfeiture for driving on the wrong side of the road.

Jerry Morrison, 19, Amarda; $10 bond forfeiture for operating an unsafe motor vehicle.

Merle Presler, 41, Route 4; $20 and costs for speeding 80 miles per hour in a 60 mile zone.

Harold Chamberlain, 28, Route 1; $10 and costs for failure to attach a red flag to an extended load.

Raymond Sisterman, 42, 209 E. Mill St.; $30 and costs for failure to maintain an assured clear distance in which to stop.

Thomas N. Jenkins, 19, 127 N. Court St.; $25 and costs with $15 of the fine suspended for failure to maintain an assured clear distance in which to stop.

Melvin Wilson, 18, Stoutsville; $10 and costs for making unnecessary noise with a motor vehicle by squealing its tires and $10 and costs for speeding 45 miles per hour in a 35 mile zone.

Ted Gillman, 18, Ashville; $30 and costs for operating a motor vehicle when he had no valid drivers license.

Motorists who live out of the area paid a total of $412 in fines, costs and bond forfeitures during the weekend.

4 Injured
In Weekend
Accidents

Four people were injured in two auto accidents over the weekend.

Lilly Persinger, 36, and Dorothy Mahorney, 57, both of Route 2, Williamsport, were injured when their car struck a 1,000-pound Holstein cow on Route 138 near Judas Road about 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

Both women were taken to Berger Hospital for emergency treatment of contusions and abrasions.

The Persinger car was heavily damaged and the cow, owned by Walter Huzar of near Clarksburg, was killed after being hurled 50 feet by the impact.

In the second accident Sheila and Aundra Lintner, ages 17 and 13-year-old, both of Route 2, were injured when the car they were in collided with a car driven by 21-year-old Linda Evans of 432 John St.

The Evans car was westbound on Route 22 about one mile east of Route 56 and 11 a.m. Sunday at the time of the accident. The Evans car had slowed down to make a left turn into a private drive when the second car, driven by Sheila Lintner, struck the Evans car in the back.

Lintner was cited by the State Highway Patrol for failure to maintain assured clear distance ahead.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television fans are faced with extraordinarily slim entertainment picking tonight on the three networks: a total of six programs when usually there are a dozen, including a feature movie.

The reason, of course, is politics. The three presidential candidates and their supporters are taking over the networks for their final push.

Both Hubert H. Humphrey and Richard M. Nixon have bought two-hour time blocks, the former on ABC and the latter on NBC. Humphrey supporters also have acquired half-hour time periods on CBS and NBC. George C. Wallace has paid broadcasts for one-half hour each on all three networks.

This will leave the viewer seeking light entertainment with "The Avengers," "I Dream of Jeannie," "Mayberry, R. F. D." — in a time slot an hour earlier than usual — "Here's Lucy," "Family Affair," and "The Carol Burnett Show."

On Sunday, politics were woven through the day's and evening's schedules. Nixon and Humphrey appeared on news-interview shows of NBC and ABC at the same early afternoon hour, and ABC continued on for another half hour with an interview with Wallace.

Later, on CBS, there was a half-hour Nixon campaign film, a rerun already broadcast on another network, in which he reminisced informally about his earlier years. Then, on NBC, there was a half-hour program dealing with the presidency that included some words by President Johnson and plugged the candidacy of Humphrey.

CBS had a news special summing up the polling situation — too close to predict a winner, was the word — that was a sort of briefing for election-watchers Tuesday night.

The program gave the network a chance to plug its upcoming coverage. The three networks seem to be competing as fiercely as the candidates for public attention Tuesday.

Meanwhile, on another front, the networks are deep in plans for changes the first of the year. "Daktari" departs CBS at the end of the year, victim of a combination of low Nielsen ratings and demographic surveys that indicate its audience consists of younger and older viewers instead of the big-buying group between 18 and 49. ABC will cancel one of its hour shows — probably "Journey to the Unknown" — in a rearrangement of its schedule.

CBS takes on Glenn Campbell, the singer who did well replacing the Smothers Brothers last summer, and ABC has British pop singer Tom Jones coming in.

Officer Shot In Cincinnati Robbery Try

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three men, two of them from Kentucky, have been jailed in connection with the holdup of a downtown restaurant over the weekend climaxed by the shooting of a policeman.

The patrolman, James Cox, 23, was reported in satisfactory condition early today at General Hospital. He was wounded in the arm.

Charged with Saturday night's $100 armed robbery of the B & G Restaurant were:

Frederick L. Hardin, 21, and William E. Coyle, 22, both of Covington, Ky.; and Harold G. Williams, 20, Batavia.

Hardin, who escaped from the Newport, Ky., jail earlier Saturday was charged with shooting with intent to wound.

Police said Hardin shot Cox as the two struggled outside the restaurant.

Asked to rule on attempts to limit news coverage of sensational cases, the U.S. Supreme Court has an opportunity to clear away misconceptions arising from its Sheppard case opinion and to halt the judicial overaction that threatens the constitutional principle of a free press.

The case at bar involves Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, accused assassin of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. The Los Angeles district attorney wants the high court to ease restrictions on pre-trial news coverage imposed by a state judge.

The district attorney contends a freer flow of news will counter false charges and rumors that the news blackout is apparently fostering.

The lower court, properly, is concerned with protecting Sirhan from prejudicial publicity so as to insure a fair trial. But, in case of such public interest, the defendant can be heard just as much by a judicially imposed silence.

In the Sheppard murder case, the Supreme Court found that a carnival atmosphere had been permitted to develop through judicial laxity. It suggested ways to avoid a repetition, including limitation of the number of reporters present at a trial and courtroom, insulation of witnesses from press interviews, and control of release of information by lawyers and court personnel.

In implementing these suggestions, trial judges have severely hampered the right of news media to cover trials. Thus the public's right to know has been gravely impaired.

Britain To Speed Mail

Britons are embroiled in a postal controversy these days, but North Americans might wonder what all the fuss is about. Until recently, a four-penny stamp guaranteed next-day delivery of a letter almost anywhere in Britain.

Then, the General Post Office raised the price of its fastest delivery to five pence, and labeled the four-penny stamp as second class. Second class mail will be delivered 24 hours later.

One-day delivery for priority mail, and two days for second class? "This two-tier system is revolutionary," commented the British postmaster general, "but we believe it will be followed by other postal administrations overseas."

Washington is strangely silent.

Tumult Is Almost Over

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The election tumult is almost over, with George Wallace still right where he began last spring, in the spoiler position. All the omens say that the best he can do is to throw the election into the House of Representatives, where Hubert Humphrey might win it as a minority liberal in a country which has gone sixty-five per cent conservative. Humphrey, as a minority President, would necessarily be powerless to conjure those billions out of Congress which he deems necessary to stage a Marshall Plan blitz on poverty in the ghettos. He has never yet convinced anybody that he really knows how to end violence merely by deploying dollars to the local politicians and their social service worker allies. The fact is that we have already had a Marshall Plan for the cities, with the most meager sort of results.

If Humphrey were to take it in the house, it could only be by a combination of pro-Democratic Party and pro-Wallace-Independent Party states. The pro-Wallace-Independent Party states in the Deep South would expect some sort of quid pro quo from the Humphrey Democrats — and in the nature of things, this would not be forthcoming. The result would most likely be an eternal snarl on the House side of Congress for any Humphrey legislative program.

The snarl would, according to this column, extend to the Senate, which will remain Democratic only by virtue of Southern holdovers. If Nixon has any tide at all, it should carry key Republicans into the upper house. At the moment of writing, Nixon was contemplating choosing Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, for a speech proposing a national task force on the subject of support for religious-affiliated schools, which should hearten Catholics who have feared for the future of parochial education. A shift of the ethnic Catholic minorities to the Republican Presidential candidate in the Northeast could help carry Richard Schweiker into the Senate over Pennsylvania's Democratic incumbent Joe Clark. Clark has said he's got to get the peace vote or he's dead. But the Catholic vote would not go on the basis of war versus peace. Schweiker has not been divorced; Clark has been divorced twice, and married three times.

In Florida, a late poll by the Cambridge Marketing Group of New York for the Republican organization shows Nixon moving ahead in the state for the first time. The count gives Nixon thirty-four per cent, Wallace twenty-eight per cent, Humphrey twenty-three per cent, with the rest undecided. On the theory that Republican Senatorial candidate Ed Gurney will get votes from both the Republicans and the Wallace partisans, he should win over the Democratic choice, LeRoy Collins.

In Missouri, the Senatorial race has been advertised as one between a McCarthy-type Democrat, Lieutenant Governor Thomas F. Eagleton, and "negatively conservative" Republican Representative Thomas B. Curtis. But trying to sell Eagleton as the "peace" candidate strikes this column as a rather futile exercise. Tom Curtis has been a leader in the fight for an all-volunteer army with pay scales calculated to attract young men who want to make military service a career. You can't make such a person seem anathema to the youthful voter.

Similarly, it is hard to see how the veteran Wayne Morse has a "peace" lead in Oregon over Bob Packwood, who doesn't love the Vietnam War, either. Packwood, according to news from Oregon, stood up to Morse in a face-to-face meeting without being pushed into a "hawk" corner, yet refraining from irresponsible statements about leaving an ally in the lurch in South Vietnam. Last winter we said Packwood might beat Morse; we still say so.

In Connecticut, Republican Ed May could finish ahead of incumbent Democrat Abe Ribicoff if there is any Catholic "ethnic" swell to Nixon. A slight Nixon swell will win Oklahoma for Republican Henry Bellmon over incumbent Senator Mike Monroney; and in Idaho chances are good for Republican George Hansen over call-it-a-day-in-Vietnam Frank Church. As for Arizona, it looks like Barry Goldwater for the Senate hands down.

The Senate, presumably, would go for Maine's Ed Muskie for Vice President if it is forced to decide between him and Spiro Agnew. But, with the new Republicans in the Senate combining with the Dick Russell type of southern Democrat, Muskie's ideas about legislation would not do well over the next four years even in the case of a Humphrey victory in the House.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THE SON of one of those young Wall Street geniuses was yawning through a class in elementary arithmetic when the teacher proposed to him, "Wilbert, let's say you have six dollars in your pocket. You give me three. Now how much have you got left?" The Wall Streeter's son looked at her coldly and demanded, "Why the heck should I give you three dollars?"

There's no accounting for the odd-ball hobbies of some of our leading citizens. Charles Rice, the eminent journalist, for example, spends hours every week tracking down unusual automobile license plates. A few of his prize discoveries include a Connecticut gent who is a triple-threat man, with three cars tagged, respectively, MUMZ, POPZ, and KIDZ. A high-priced model wangled license number 36-24-36. A New Jersey undertaker with a sense of humor nailed down a license plate reading U-2. A Mr. Silpe—not Jack Benny—has AGE 39. And one of Rice's happiest moments came when he found himself behind a tow truck hauling away the battered remains of a wrecked sedan with license plate OOP.

"Is it true," queries Irene Keepin, "that our President, when asked the secret of rearing two such lovely daughters, as Lynda and Luci, replied, 'Johnson's whacks, I reckon.'"

I wouldn't know, Irene!

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

What do educators mean when they refer to a student as a gifted child?

I am delighted that you said "educators," because many enthusiastic parents believe their children are gifted if they learn to talk two months before Dr. Spock says they're supposed to.

In reality there is no exact measuring device by which we can pinpoint gifted children other than by their capacity to learn, understand and retain information as compared to children of their own age. If there is any kind of acceptable standard, it probably is the intelligence quotient, or I.Q., as determined by some of the more modern methods of study.

An I.Q. above 125 is considered above average, although many other factors are involved in the total equation of being gifted. Modern concepts of education now show that many more gifted children would become evident if their social, environmental and intellectual background was not as impoverished as is their financial one. Thousands of potentially gifted children are wasted by society and more especially by themselves because their gifts have been overwhelming stifled by inadequate education.

There are a great many signs of "giftedness," like unusual reading capacity, tremendous curiosity and limitless memory. None of these by themselves place the child in the gifted category. By a compilation of their social and intellectual levels and the results of psychometric studies the obvious and the covert talents of children are recognized.

Personally I believe that, for every gifted child who is recognized, there are thousands with similar gifts who fade away undetected and wither because of lack of intellectual nourishment.

Some scientists estimate that even the gifted children are using no more than ten per cent of their potential capacity. Concentrated endeavors to "create" the gifted child are as great a social obligation as is the need to accelerate the education of those already recognized.

Is there any special reason why children who cough a great deal during the night don't do so during the day?

The coughs of children seem to be less apparent during the day because the cough is less disturbing to the family and sometimes is unheard during play. When, however, there is a distinct cough that starts at bedtime, the prime suspect should be an allergy of some kind. When there is a known allergic background, efforts must be concentrated on keeping the "cough room" free of dust, furry toys and curtains. Mattress and pillows can be covered with nonallergic material. Trial and error is the only way to rule out a cough of allergic origin before intensive scratch tests are made for offending substances.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

As the holiday seasons are coming up, we would like to give a friendly reminder to the people of the community about our servicemen overseas.

In today's paper you will find a column of names and addresses of local servicemen who are stationed in the Viet Nam area.

We would like for everyone in the community to send holiday cards, letters or packages to our servicemen who are over there. No matter what is sent to our fighting men it is always appreciated. You can send a package of Kool-Aide in card or letter, which is a real treat to them. To our understanding their water is not very drinkable.

This is a list of names and addresses which was sent to "Mail to the Front" from people of this community. If anyone caring to add an address to this list can do so by sending to the address below.

Please send your cards, letters or packages to our servicemen as time is coming up fast for mail overseas.

According To Boyle

By BERNIE GOULD (For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — Jane Merrow makes a marvelous mistress in "Lion in Winter." It would be impossible to blame the aging King Henry II for choosing the young French Princess Alais as his mistress 800 years ago, if she looked anything like this ingenue actress.

Those grand green eyes—"sometimes they're green; sometimes they're grayish-green; anyway, they're not emerald"—that long-flowing light brown hair, and a lissom figure shown to much more advantage in 20th century short skirt than in the cumbersome costumes of the 12th century.

But green eyes do not an actress make. Miss Merrow, an English lass born in Great Gaddesden, loved acting since she was a child. But she feared she wouldn't be able to remember lines, so she sought a teaching education—with a push from her mother, who wanted her to have "something to fall back on" during the out-of-acting-work periods.

But—and let's not overdo this "fate" scene—she couldn't get into the teaching school until she was 18. So, to "fill in the year," she attended the famous Royal Academy of Dramatic Art.

She cut her acting teeth on the stage, and her first film role was in "Don't Bother to Knock." She did some television work—she recalls with delightful exuberance that "marvelous comedy," "Just in Time," a British spoof of the James Bond milieu, "a 'send-up' we call it." Then the title role in BBC-TV's "Lorna Doone" series.

Now a plum movie role for a young actress: the "other woman" in "Lion in Winter," a superb film, produced by Martin Poll for Avco-Embassy Pictures, based on the story of King Henry II, played by Peter O'Toole, and Queen Eleanor of Aquitaine, played by Katharine Hepburn. O'Toole and Miss Hepburn offer their finest performances in this reserved seat attraction and in such quality acting company, Miss Merrow sports herself well.

She recalls being sent the script and deciding "I would throw myself out the window if I don't get the part." A clip of her role in the film, "Night of the Big Heat," was sent to O'Toole and director Anthony Harvey—"Don't confuse it with 'In the Heat of the Night.' This was awful"—and then she was called in for a test.

The company, directed by Harvey, spent three weeks in rehearsal—"so we could get to know each other; it's such an intimate play"—before starting shooting last November. It was filmed mainly on locations in France, with some work in Ireland and Wales.

And a starlet was born.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Monday, Nov. 4, the 309th day of 1968. There are 57 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1952, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was elected president, defeating Adlai Stevenson. It was the first Republican presidential victory in 20 years.

On this date, in 1825, the first boat to reach New York City by using the Erie Canal arrived nine days after leaving Buffalo, N.Y.

In 1842, Abraham Lincoln was married to Mary Todd in Springfield.

In 1884, Democrat Grover Cleveland was elected president.

In 1924, Calvin Coolidge was elected president.

In 1931, the League of Nations cited Japan for aggression in Manchuria.

In 1944, the World War II Allies announced that Greece had been completely liberated from the Nazis.

Ten years ago — The Democrats scored sweeping victories throughout most of the nation in general elections and gained control of the House and the Senate.

Five years ago — The Soviets halted an American convoy en route to West Berlin on the Autobahn in the second such incident in a month.

One year ago — Pope Paul underwent a prostate operation at the Vatican.

British Censor

By BOB THOMAS
AP Television-Movie Writer

LONDON (AP) — America's newly found concern over violence in films and television brings an indulgent smile from England's movie censor, John Travelyan. He has been grappling with the issue for many years.

The assassinations of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Robert F. Kennedy, plus civil disorders in the cities, prompted many Americans to ponder whether popular mediums of entertainment were contributing to a mood of violence. The question was posed by President Johnson when he established a commission to investigate violence in the United States.

Travelyan, a plain-spoken Englishman who reviews all theatrical films for the British Board of Film Censors, expressed doubt that the President's commission would accomplish much in cutting down depictions of violence. Nor was he impressed with vows by television chiefs and film makers to make entertainment less violent.

"It will take more than 12 months to achieve any effect," he observed. By that time, the hue and cry over violence may have subsided.

Travelyan pointed out the difference in American vs. English film censorship:

"The Americans have always been more concerned with questions of morality; that reflects the Catholic influence in your censorship. I am not a moralist;

I do not attempt to make moral judgment for the audience. But I do aim to protect filmgoers from bad influences. The British public does not like an excess of violence on the screen. Nor do I."

His judgments can be stringent. Sometimes he will not merely order cuts in a film but ban it completely, as in the case of Roger Corman's motorcycle-gang film, "Wild Angels." Travelyan's reasoning: "Such gangs do not exist in Great Britain. So why encourage them?"

One of the issues being investigated by the President's commission is whether violence in films and TV provokes imitative behavior.

"I don't think so," remarked Travelyan. "I have a different reason for detesting violence on the screen. I feel that if you get a continuous diet of it, you develop an indifference to violence."

"When I was in America, I was shocked by the television coverage of the Vietnam war. Here real-life killing was being presented in an entertainment medium, interrupted by commercials. After seeing this sort of thing on TV day after day, people are bound to accept this as normality."

Travelyan's decisions sometimes puzzle American film companies. He ordered extensive cuts in "The Dirty Dozen," yet passed "Bonnie and Clyde" with no change—"because I considered it a fantasy."

Hatlo's They'll Do It Every Time

Many Polls Indicate Presidential Tossup

By RAY KOHN
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The vast majority of straw surveys around the nation show Richard M. Nixon leading Hubert H. Humphrey. But they also show the vice president gaining considerable momentum.

Lawrence F. O'Brien, Democratic national chairman, said Sunday night "The tide has been turning in Hubert Humphrey's favor for more than a month, and the pollsters have confirmed it tonight," adding:

"The Gallup poll, which practically wrote Humphrey out of the race only a few months ago, will show a final pre-election spread of only 42 to 40 per cent between Nixon and Humphrey."

The Gallup poll of Oct. 17-21 gave Nixon an 8 point lead.

"The Harris poll," said O'Brien, "also will have only a two-point spread, a margin the professional pollsters agree make the election too close to call."

The previous Harris finding was Nixon 40 and Humphrey 37 per cent.

O'Brien also said: "The Sind-

linger poll tonight, meantime, gives Humphrey the edge over Nixon."

A telephone poll of 48 states by the Norwood, Pa., marketing firm of Sindlinger & Co., Inc., found—as of Oct. 28-31—Nixon ahead by 33.3 to 32.2 for Humphrey.

The Washington Post, commenting Friday on the role of reporting public opinion, said, "The polls have certainly wielded an influence this year far greater than at any time in their 31-year history."

For example, early in August financial contributions to Humphrey's campaign dropped considerably after a Gallup report showed him 16 percentage points behind Nixon.

As the poll findings improved for the vice president, so did the flow of money.

The fifth and final report of the New York Daily News depicted Humphrey ahead in New York state by 3.3 points. It was Humphrey 46.8, Nixon 43.5, Wallace 6.8, and 2.9 undecided.

Nixon had been ahead in the first two straw ballots.

The Harris poll of Oct. 27-28 gives Nixon a 3 point lead, but with indications Humphrey is moving up. Wallace got 16 per cent.

Another example of Humphrey on the move is shown by a survey published Sunday by the Minneapolis Tribune, showing the vice president with 48 per cent, Nixon 44, Wallace 5, and 3 per cent undecided. Two weeks ago the poll showed Nixon with 44.5, Humphrey 42.5 and Wallace 9 per cent.

Wallace has not been shut out in any poll, and received a high of 15.9 per cent in a state poll by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Nixon got 38 per cent, Humphrey 32.2, with 13.9 undecided.

A Newsweek magazine study of each state, 10 days before the election, said it appeared that Nixon's strength "had peaked" but couldn't see a Humphrey victory in any event.

The Chicago Sun-Times straw poll reflected a heavy advantage for Nixon, with the GOP candidate receiving 46.94 per cent, Humphrey 38.96 and Wallace 14.10.

The Baltimore News American poll gives Nixon 39.8 per cent, Humphrey 31.6, Wallace 27.2, no choice 1.4.

Nixon is strongly favored, despite a late rally by Humphrey, according to a national political survey published today by The New York Times.

It says Nixon leads in 30 states with a total of 299 electoral votes.

Humphrey is ahead in 8 states plus the District of Columbia with 77 electoral votes, while Wallace led in five states with 45 votes, the Times said. Seven states with 117 votes were considered too close to call.

Nixon's projected electoral vote has dropped by 81 and Wallace's by 21 since the last Times survey a month ago. Humphrey has gained 49 votes and the total vote of states too close to call has increased by 53.

Humphrey was reported leading in Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland, West Virginia, Michigan, Minnesota, Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

Wallace was ahead in Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi, the Times said.

The survey said Nixon's lead was narrow in Delaware, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Missouri, Arizona, New Mexico, Florida and Virginia. Humphrey could win if he sweeps the undecided states and most of those where Nixon's lead is close, the newspaper said.

The survey also indicated that Republicans would gain about 5 governorships and perhaps as many as 8 in the 21 states where such elections will be held. In Congress, the Republicans were expected to gain about 6 senate seats and 10 House seats, but this would not deprive the Democrats of control of either house, the Times said.

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr.'s helicopter plunged about 30 feet to the ground Sunday as it was approaching a rally in his campaign for governor.

Moore addressed the crowd briefly, saying he was "glad to be standing here," before he was taken by ambulance to Charleston General Hospital.

Doctors said the Republican candidate had three rib fractures, a bruise on his right leg, cuts on both hands and his right leg and a possible ruptured left calf muscle.

REPUBLICAN MEMBER OF UNITED STATES CONGRESS

Chalmers P. Wylie is a working Congressman who serves the people of the 15th District in the areas of their greatest concern.

- INFLATION — Congressman Wylie voted against the tax increase, because he believes that the first place to attack inflation is by reducing federal spending through better economy and efficiency in government.
- CRIME — he helped enact legislation to improve training and pay for local law enforcement agencies. Measures he supported now restrict the U.S. Supreme Court from overruling State Courts in certain criminal cases, particularly those involving voluntary confessions.

- CONSUMER PROTECTION — he helped enact "Truth in Lending" legislation, and co-sponsored legislation to make loan sharking across State lines a federal offense.
- VIETNAM — he sponsored an amendment which stops U.S. funds from going through the Export-Import Bank to nations aiding North Vietnam.

Chalmers P. Wylie will continue to give the people of the 15th District a strong, sure voice in Congress. And we need to keep experience in the 15th District.

Many Polls Indicate Presidential Tossup

By RAY KOHN
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The vast majority of straw surveys around the nation show Richard M. Nixon leading Hubert H. Humphrey. But they also show the vice president gaining considerable momentum.

Lawrence F. O'Brien, Democratic national chairman, said Sunday night "The tide has been turning in Hubert Humphrey's favor for more than a month, and the pollsters have confirmed it tonight," adding: "The Gallup poll, which practically wrote Humphrey out of the race only a few months ago, will show a final pre-election spread of only 42 to 40 per cent between Nixon and Humphrey."

The Gallup poll of Oct. 17-21 gave Nixon an 8 point lead.

"The Harris poll," said O'Brien, "also will have only a two-point spread, a margin the professional pollsters agree make the election too close to call."

The previous Harris finding was Nixon 40 and Humphrey 37 per cent.

O'Brien also said: "The Sind-

linger poll tonight, meantime, gives Humphrey the edge over Nixon."

A telephone poll of 48 states by the Norwood, Pa., marketing firm of Sindlinger & Co., Inc., found—as of Oct. 28-31—Nixon ahead by 33.3 to 32.2 for Humphrey.

The Washington Post, commenting Friday on the role of reporting public opinion, said, "The polls have certainly wielded an influence this year far greater than at any time in their 31-year history."

For example, early in August financial contributions to Humphrey's campaign dropped considerably after a Gallup report showed him 16 percentage points behind Nixon.

As the poll findings improved for the vice president, so did the flow of money.

The fifth and final report of the New York Daily News depicted Humphrey ahead in New York state by 3.3 points. It was Humphrey 46.8, Nixon 43.5, Wallace 6.8, and 2.9 undecided.

Nixon had been ahead in the first two straw ballots.

The Harris poll of Oct. 27-28 gives Nixon a 3 point lead, but with indications Humphrey is moving up. Wallace got 16 per cent.

Another example of Humphrey on the move is shown by a survey published Sunday by the Minneapolis Tribune, showing the vice president with 48 per cent, Nixon 44, Wallace 5, and 3 per cent undecided. Two weeks ago the poll showed Nixon with 44.5, Humphrey 42.5 and Wallace 9 per cent.

Wallace has not been shut out in any poll, and received a high of 15.9 per cent in a state poll by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Nixon got 38 per cent, Humphrey 32.2, with 13.9 undecided.

A Newsweek magazine study of each state, 10 days before the election, said it appeared that Nixon's strength "had peaked" but couldn't see a Humphrey victory in any event.

The Chicago Sun-Times straw poll reflected a heavy advantage for Nixon, with the GOP candidate receiving 46.94 per cent, Humphrey 38.96 and Wallace 14.10.

The Baltimore News American poll gives Nixon 39.8 per cent, Humphrey 31.6, Wallace 27.2, no choice 1.4.

Nixon is strongly favored, despite a late rally by Humphrey, according to a national political survey published today by The New York Times.

It says Nixon leads in 30 states with a total of 299 electoral votes.

Humphrey is ahead in 8 states plus the District of Columbia with 77 electoral votes, while Wallace led in five states with 45 votes, the Times said. Seven states with 117 votes were considered too close to call.

Nixon's projected electoral vote has dropped by 81 and Wallace's by 21 since the last Times survey a month ago. Humphrey has gained 49 votes and the total vote of states too close to call has increased by 53.

Humphrey was reported leading in Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland, West Virginia, Michigan, Minnesota, Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

Wallace was ahead in Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana and Mississippi, the Times said.

The survey said Nixon's lead was narrow in Delaware, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Missouri, Arizona, New Mexico, Florida and Virginia. Humphrey could win if he sweeps the undecided states and most of those where Nixon's lead is close, the newspaper said.

The survey also indicated that Republicans would gain about 5 governorships and perhaps as many as 8 in the 21 states where such elections will be held. In Congress, the Republicans were expected to gain about 6 senate seats and 10 House seats, but this would not deprive the Democrats of control of either house, the Times said.

Solon Injured In Copter Plunge

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr.'s helicopter plunged about 30 feet to the ground Sunday as it was approaching a rally in his campaign for governor.

Moore addressed the crowd briefly, saying he was "glad to be standing here," before he was taken by ambulance to Charleston General Hospital.

Doctors said the Republican candidate had three rib fractures, a bruise on his right leg, cuts on both hands and his right leg and a possible ruptured left calf muscle.

REPUBLICAN MEMBER OF UNITED STATES CONGRESS

Chalmers P. Wylie is a working Congressman who serves the people of the 15th District in the areas of their greatest concern.

- INFLATION — Congressman Wylie voted against the tax increase, because he believes that the first place to attack inflation is by reducing federal spending through better economy and efficiency in government.
- CRIME — he helped enact legislation to improve training and pay for local law enforcement agencies. Measures he supported now restrict the U.S. Supreme Court from overruling State Courts in certain criminal cases, particularly those involving voluntary confessions.

- CONSUMER PROTECTION — he helped enact "Truth in Lending" legislation, and co-sponsored legislation to make loan sharking across State lines a federal offense.
- VIETNAM — he sponsored an amendment which stops U.S. funds from going through the Export-Import Bank to nations aiding North Vietnam.

Chalmers P. Wylie will continue to give the people of the 15th District a strong, sure voice in Congress. And we need to keep experience in the 15th District.

Diana L. Stone Is Married To Larry E. Sykes Oct. 27

MRS. LARRY E. SYKES

The marriage of Miss Diana L. Stone and Larry E. Sykes was performed by the Rev. Jack Lethenstrom on Sunday Oct. 27 in Mt. Zion United Methodist Church on the Lancaster-Circleville Road.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Stone of Lancaster. Mr. Sykes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sykes, Route 1, Stoutsville.

Mrs. Richard Davis, organist, and Mrs. Frank Whitmore, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Don Hampshire, the bride selected for her wedding day a white, formal length peau-de-soie and Alencon lace sheath gown. The bodice, with a natural waistline, featured jeweled lace motifs, bateau neckline and long sleeves. The skirt, also enhanced with motifs, had a fishtail back. A sweeping detachable train formed a redingote effect and extended into chapel length. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held by a petal plateau of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses with satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dennis Hartsough, Chillicothe, sister of the groom. She was attired in a formal length, beauty red, silk chiffon A-line gown with an empire bodice, bateau neckline, and elbow length sleeves. A satin panel accented the back and a matching Dior bow held her pouf veil.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Stone of Amanda, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Jan Alexander and Miss Edie Watson of Columbus. Miss Christine Sykes, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid. They were dressed identically to the matron of honor except the junior bridesmaid whose gown was pink claret. Each attendant carried lace baskets of rainbow colored asters and white pompon mums.

Flower girl was Miss Traci Ruble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruble, Lancaster. She wore a pink claret silk chiffon A-line gown with an empire bodice and satin sash accented the back.

Jimmy Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, Grove City, cousin of the groom, was ring bearer.

Dennis Hartsough of Chillicothe, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Richard Stone, Amanda, brother of the bride; John Chaney, Lancaster, and James Davis, cousin of the groom, Grove City. Acolyte was

Father Escorts Daughter To College Social Event

DAUGHTER AND DAD — Nancy May, a freshman at Monticello College, is seen here being escorted by her father, Roger May, during the annual Coronation Ball last weekend at the Illinois College.

Miss Nancy May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger H. May, Route 1, Circleville, was a member of the Queen's Court last weekend at the annual Coronation Ball at Monticello College, Godfrey, Illinois.

The Ball is held each year at the climax of Dad's Weekend, when parents join their daughters for a fun-filled weekend at the campus of the two-year women's college. Mr. May served as his daughter's escort.

Miss May was one of nine chosen from the entire student body as most typifying the "Ideal Daughter." She is the new-elected vice president of the Freshman Class and is a first-year student at the college.

Parents from 17 states and three foreign countries were guests of the college for a series of student-sponsored events. A play produced by the drama department, a faculty reception, dormitory open house, horse show, and synchronized swimming exhibition preceded the gala formal ball.

Door-To-Door Saleswoman Still Active At Age Of 90

By JOHN FOX
Associated Press Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — If your image of a door-to-door salesman is a brash young man with his foot in the door, you obviously haven't met Mrs. M. N. Lallie Keele.

Mrs. Keele sells spices, tea and other household items in south Louisville.

She was 90 years old Sunday.

Mrs. Keele has been at it, on her own, since her husband died 19 years ago. Before that, she helped him with his route.

"I don't do much soliciting anymore," she remarks. "But I still do all my own delivering. If you need anything, just call and I'll bring it over."

Her territory is more than one-half mile long and one-third mile wide. She covers it on foot several times a week—after she reaches it. She lives in another salesman's territory and walks to work.

"I never learned to drive a car," says Mrs. Keele.

Her husband was a Baptist preacher who did parttime jobs to make ends meet. They reared six children, and their offspring are now in the fourth generation.

Still rule-straight at age 90, Mrs. Keele lives alone in a five-room home, asking for and receiving no help in keeping it up.

If the weekdays are for Mrs. Keele's business, Sundays are for God.

She has taught Sunday school for 37 years. Of her students, she says, with a twinkle in her eye:

son of Mrs. Betty Hanawalt of Route 1, Williamsport. Recently the Civil Action

Team initiated a "School Project" at the Vietnamese village of Tra Jai to support a school program which would allow the children of the village to be enrolled in school. The children range in ages of 7-15 years and have not received any type of formal education. The cost per child per month in the nearest school is 800 Piastre ($6.78) a large sum to families whose income usually does not exceed 3,000 Piastre ($25.42), barely enough to purchase the necessities such as rice and sometimes fish.

Brent, as assistant civic action officer, and the personnel of the assault helicopter company have donated funds of their own to support this school project and with the help of others have been able to enroll 19 children in school. Their goal for the future is 30 pupils.

The group undertaking has been designated "School Project," 189th Assault Helicopter Co., 52nd Combat Aviation Bn., APO San Francisco 96381.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate could get its second lady member and the House its first Negro congresswoman in congressional elections Tuesday that have 34 women in the running.

Of the 10 women incumbents, Rep. Frances P. Bolton, R-Ohio, faces the toughest election of her 28-year congressional career, and freshman Rep. Margaret Heckler, R-Mass., is in a close race.

The other eight incumbent congresswomen are expected to be back for the session starting Jan. 3.

Radio station owner Katherine Peden of Hopkinsville, Ky., is given a fighting chance to join Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, in the Senate.

But Mrs. Peden's Republican opponent, former Jefferson County judge Marlow W. Cook, is favored to win the race for retiring GOP Sen. Thruston B. Morton's seat.

Of just two Negro women candidates for Congress, a good chance is given 43-year-old Democrat Shirley Chisholm. The first Negro woman member of the New York State Assembly, she is running in the new 12th district of Manhattan that includes Bedford-Stuyvesant, one of the county's largest Negro slum areas.

Her opponents in the three-way race are well-known civil rights leader James Farmer, one of the founders of the Congress of Racial Equality running on the Liberal-Republican ticket, and Conservative Ralph L. Carrano, a 45-year-old public relations man.

Political observers give only a slim chance to Republican Janet Robert Jennings, the second Negro woman candidate, running in Illinois.

Mrs. Jennings, 35, a Chicago schoolteacher and former campaign secretary for Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., is challenging Democratic incumbent Rep. William L. Dawson, who has represented Illinois' first district since 1942. Dawson is a Negro.

Mrs. Bolton—in Congress

since 1940 and the ranking GOP member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee—is getting the first serious competition in her 22nd Ohio district from a redistricted fellow Congressman, Rep. Charles Vank, a Democrat.

Age is a major issue in their nip-and-tuck battle. Vank, 55, has a liberal record. Mrs. Bolton, the oldest member of Congress seeking re-election, has a conservative record.

EX-CON LECTURES—Theodore (Teddy) Green, who has spent a total of 16 years in prisons for bank robbery and escapes, lectures to the Suffolk University Psychology Club in Boston. He told the club that the Massachusetts prison system is "not pushing fast or hard enough" on rehabilitation. Green has been out of prison for 14 months and sells cars.

Holmes County Is Center Of Amish Rising Birth Rate

MILLERSBURG, Ohio (AP)—Holmes County, Ohio, center of the state's Amish population, also is a center in the sect's booming birth rate, according to the November issue of Population Bulletin.

The magazine, published by the federal government's Population Reference Bureau, Inc., devotes this month's issue to a study of Amish and Hutterite population patterns.

The 440 Hutterite pioneers who came to North America in the 1870s have grown to 15,000 in less than a century. Like the Amish, they stem from the Anabaptists of 1525. They live on huge communal farms in North Dakota, Montana, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Holmes County and surrounding areas have an Amish population of about 12,000, the largest concentration of Amish in the world.

While the general growth rate for both the Amish and the U.S. (but not the Hutterites) has been downward, the pattern of growth has often been directly opposed. The Amish population, for instance, rose from 1930-40, but dropped from 1940 to 1950.

In the past, children have been an economic plus on Amish farms. Amish are pacifists and it is probable that during war time fear for the future of their children cut the number of births.

The Ohio and Indiana Amish have the highest rate of twin births of any known population, according to the bulletin. The rate is 15.3 per 1,000 live births in Ohio and 21.1 in Indiana. In 1964, the U.S. rate was 10.1.

The Amish, who began migrating to the United States from Europe in 1727, now number 49,370. The Amish have a median of 6.7 children per woman compared to the Hutterite median of 10.4 children.

The study cites Geauga County resident John Eli Miller, who died in 1961 at the age of 95, leaving behind 410 living descendants.

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our son, who is 25, has been going with a young lady of 24 for the last 2 years. They seem to get along very well (same religion), and he asked her to marry him. She accepted, but here's the problem. Our son wants his girl friend to be examined by a doctor to find out if she is a virgin. He says he wants to be sure she is before the wedding because if he finds out she isn't after the wedding, he will leave her at once.

The girl refuses to submit to this kind of examination and our son says if she will not do so within the next 30 days he will drop her. All wedding plans are at a standstill now, and we don't know what to do. Is our son out of line, or is the girl?

MOTHER OF THE MAN
DEAR MOTHER: I would say your son is out of line. Like way out! His request is insulting, and if I were the girl I would have dropped him in 30 seconds.

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and have always had a very good mother-daughter relationship, but we are now having our differences over a young man I have started dating and like very, very much.

First, let me explain that he is a very nice person, polite and all. I think I am lucky to be dating him. Well, last night my mother said, "How can you stand J?"—his hands nd fingernails are always lthy?"

Abby, "J" is mechanically inclined and he works on his car a lot, so naturally his hands and fingernails are going to get dirty and greasy. But my mother refuses to accept that.

I don't think a fellow's fingernails are all that important, and I don't think it's my place to tell a 23-year-old man that his fingernails are dirty, do you? Please help me think a whole lot of this guy.

NEEDS HEL
DEAR NEEDS: If you "think a whole lot of this guy," tell him that there are soaps on the market that will dissolve grease and grime from hands and fingernails. If he's the right kind of fellow, he'll appreciate it.

DEAR ABBY: I know you've heard about people who have lied about their ages because they wanted to be "younger," but how about those who lie about their ages because they wanted to be OLDER?

It all started when I lied about my age to get a job. I was 14 and said I was 18. No, it's on all kinds of records that I am 4 years older than I really am.

I didn't mind so much when I was younger, but now I like to get straightened out. I would hate to tell you how many places and records have the wrong year of my birth on them.

DEAR LIAR: The ON document that bears your accurate birth date is your birth certificate. Get a copy from the bureau of vital statistics in the city of your birth. They send copies to those "places where you'd like the date corrected."

DEAR ABBY: Boy, did you ever give ST. LOUIS the right answer about twin beds! I mean, who knows how rough it is to have seven kids in 9 years? I am ready for two BEDROOMS—never mind two

I love my husband, but enough is enough.

Avondale Wants Out Of Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—Community leaders of Avondale, a predominantly Negro section of the city, are studying plans which call for withdrawal from the city. Annexed in 1896, the community has been the scene of three racial disturbances since 1967.

Community leaders said earlier Avondale residents are suffering from police brutality and injustice in the courts. They said, "We couldn't do any worse by managing our own affairs."

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Andy Stapp, 24-year-old organizer of the American Serviceman's Union, said Sunday that "the fascist menace in this country has its spawning grounds in the higher ranks of the armed services."

Stapp will speak tonight at Case Western Reserve University under the auspices of the Students for a Democratic Society.

The organization, which seeks among other things, a federa minimum wage for servicemen, has several thousand members on service bases throughout the world.

Other demands include an end to saluting officers and election of officers by a vote of the men.

Although Stapp refused to say just what the membership is, he said the union's underground newspaper, "The Bond," goes to 15,000 GI's a month.

"Nothing can stop it now short of outright government repression," Stapp said of his organization.

Stapp, a former Army man, was given an undesirable discharge. He claims that was after news of his union organizing activities reached "the brass."

On Oct. 3, 1863, a small, cigarshape submarine belonging to the Confederacy attacked the Union ship New Ironsides in Charleston Harbor causing considerable damage.

Finds Way That Both Relieves Pain and Shrinks Piles In Most Cases

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has found a special formula with the ability, in most cases — to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching and relieve pain. In case after case doctors proved, while gently relieving pain actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. The secret is Preparation H®. There is no other formula for hemorrhoids like it. Preparation H also soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

Meet The Tigers

Larry Dean (42) and Steve Thomas (99) are two sophomores on the Circleville High School football team. Dean, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dean, 126 Pinckney St., is a full-back. Thomas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, 400 Sunnyview Drive, is an end.

Bengals Bow To Oilers 27-17; Brown Downcast

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
CINCINNATI (AP) — Paul Brown continues to be a gracious but disappointed loser.

"I die about two inches every game," Brown conceded Sunday after his Cincinnati Bengals bowed to the Houston Oilers 27-17.

It was the sixth straight setback for the American Football League expansion team and sent the last-place Bengals skidding to a 2-7 record.

"This reminds me of the Baby Bucks of 1943. They try very hard but keep losing," Brown said. He was referring to his last year as head coach at Ohio State when the Buckeyes finished with a 3-6 record.

On a cheerful note, Brown was more than satisfied with the performances of halfback Paul Robinson and rookie quarterback Sam Wyche.

"Robinson is a fine football player who gets better every day. He's a bubbly, enthusiastic competitor."

Robinson, a swift, hard runner, ripped Houston's defense for 156 yards in 21 carries and scored two touchdowns.

His most sensational run came on the last play of the game, when the former Arizona flash gathered in Wyche's screen pass, raced down the sidelines and cut back to the middle on the way to a 68-yard touchdown scamper.

Wyche, promoted from the taxi squad last week to replace injured Dewey Warren, was thrown five times for losses totaling 33 yards. But the rookie from Furman completed 20 of 25 passes for 195 yards, and directed the attack impressively. "Sam's quite a man," Brown said. "He stood in there like a soldier."

Houston, now 4-5, jumped off to a 10-0 first quarter advantage when Wayne Walker booted a 27-yard field goal and Don Trull guided the Oilers 90 yards in 16 plays with the payoff a four-yard toss to Al Reed.

Dale Livingston's 28-yard field goal early in the second period cut the Oilers lead to 10-3. And Wyche sparked a Bengal march minutes later to the Houston 3. But the Oilers defense stiffened and Livingston missed a key 16-yard field goal try.

Trull, completing two passes to Jim Beirne for 55 yards, promptly steered the Oilers 80 yards in eight plays with Hoyle Granger crashing over from the one for a 17-3 halftime lead.

Cincinnati bounced back in the third period when Wyche completed eight straight passes for 64 yards and Robinson ran the final four to cut the deficit to 17-10.

But Trull, who finished with 13 of 20 aerials for 181 yards, connected four times in an eight-play, 69-yard drive culminated by a 10-yard touchdown strike to Mac Haik.

Walker's 41-yard field goal with 9:44 remaining closed out Houston's scoring and the Bengals couldn't reach paydirt again until Wyche and Robinson teamed up on the 68-yard TD that gave the partisan crowd of 24,012 a final thrill.

Circleville Junior High '11' Ends Season With 44-0 Win

The Circleville Junior High Football team defeated Hamilton Twp., 44-0, Saturday to cap an undefeated season.

Coached by John Glanton and his assistant Darrell Young, the Tiger seventh and eighth squad has defeated Chillicothe Mt. Logan, Lancaster Stansbury, Lancaster Thomas Ewing, Lancaster General Sherman and Hamilton.

At halftime of Saturday's game, the second string players of both Hamilton and Circleville had a brief skirmish, with the little Tigers winning, 8-0.

Dave Truex led the Tiger Cubs to their fifth victory, scoring four touchdowns on runs of 30, one, seven and 50 yards and passing to Brian Barthelmas for a fifth touchdown.

THE sixth TD for the Tigers was a 40-yard pass play from Greg Hoskins to David Pontious.

Extra points were four by David Pontious, two by Gary

Mogan and two on a Hoskins to Barthelmas pass.

David Webb, Circleville's halfback, caught four passes that kept Tiger scoring drives going.

The line did an excellent job of blocking according to Glanton.

Starting linemen are Tom Taylor and Bill Halstenberg, ends; Pete Bowers and Greg Dearth, guards; Tom Frericks and Keith Davis, tackles; and Dale Bost, center.

Dayton Defeats Muskegon, 3-0

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Dayton posted its fifth straight International Hockey League victory at home Sunday night, drowning Muskegon 3-0.

After a scoreless first period, the Gems hit twice in the second period on goals by Don Westbrook and Al Beaulieu and in the final period on a goal by Cliff Bristow.

Leroy Kelly Leads Browns To 33-21 Win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "Has anybody here seen Leroy Kelly?"

The words of that old song haunted the San Francisco 49ers today.

They saw Leroy Kelly often, in fact too much, but they could not catch him Sunday at Kezar Stadium where the 200-pound thunderbolt led his Cleveland Browns to a 33-21 National Football League triumph.

In 27 carries, Kelly bolted and bulldozed for 174 yards — almost three times the ground gained by entire 49er backfield.

The five-year veteran beat his old career high of 163 against the Washington Redskins last year. It was the fifth time this season and 16th time in his career he exceeded 100 yards in a game.

He scored one touchdown with sheer power, hitting from two yards out right where the 49ers were massed for him and rolling defenders back across the goal line. He accounted for half of the 76 yards in the Browns' first touchdown march.

And a 32-yard burst right up the middle set up one of Don Cockroft's four field goals.

But most of all Kelly was a frustration to 49ers quarterback John Brodie. Brodie completed 62 per cent of his 37 passes for 241 yards and three touchdowns but still lost the game.

He threw two scoring passes in the first half after Cockroft's first field goal and the 49ers led 14-3. Then Kelly went to work.

Billy Casper Wins Lucky Golf Clash

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Billy Casper chipped in from off the green for birdies on the first and second holes in the final round of the $100,000 Lucky International Open Golf Tournament Sunday, and went on to his sixth tournament victory of the year.

His winning 72-hole score was 269, 15 under par.

The victory gave the 37-year-old Bonita, Calif., pro $20,000 in prize money and a total for the year of $203,389. Only Jack Nicklaus, who carted home $211,000 last year, has ever won more money playing golf.

Casper finished four strokes ahead of the next closest finishers, Ray Floyd and Don Massengale.

Casper carded a final-round 66 for 269. Floyd shot a 68 Sunday and Massengale fired a 69 for their 273s.

Young Bob Murphy, Ken Still of Stockton and Miller Barber tied for fourth at 274.

Murphy and Barber had a 68. One stroke farther behind at 275 was Tommy Aaron, who followed his course record 63 of Saturday with a one-over-par 72.

Graham Hill Wins World Championship

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Poker-faced Graham Hill of England sailed serenely to a second world championship Sunday as he won the seventh Mexican Grand Prix, setting a record on the five-kilometer course of one hour, 56:43.95.

Bruce McLaren of New Zealand was second and Jackie Oliver of England earned third place, giving England two top places in this race for the first time.

The 1969 U. S. Women's Open golf championship will be held at Seaside Hills Country Club, Pensacola, Fla., June 26-29.

OU, Baldwin-Wallace Win 'Must' Grid Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ohio University clinched a trip to the Tangerine Bowl and Baldwin-Wallace won its first Ohio Conference championship in 31 years to highlight Ohio college football action Saturday.

Ohio U. assured itself of at least a tie for the Mid-American Conference title by dropping Western Michigan 34-27. The Bobcats now are 5-0 in the league with one game to go, but OU knocked off second-place Miami and thus gets the Dec. 27 call to Orlando, Fla.

Ohio U. came back from a 7-0 deficit to lead 14-10 at a half and then held a precarious 28-27 lead until, with only eight seconds left to play, quarterback Cleve Bryant scored from the one-yard line.

Big guns for the Bobcats were Dave LeVeck and Bob Houmard, with two touchdowns each.

Baldwin-Wallace squeaked out a 26-20 win over Ohio Wesleyan by stopping the Bishops on the two-yard line with two seconds left to play to win the Ohio Conference title.

It was the 10th straight win for Baldwin-Wallace and snapped Wesleyan's 14-game unbeaten string.

The game was locked in a 20-20 tie with 2:36 left to play in the fourth quarter when the Yellow Jackets scored the winning touchdown on three plays, highlighted by quarterback Mike Blake's 73-yard pass play to Vern Sharbaugh.

Ohio State, meanwhile, set aside another Big Ten foe in its drive for the Rose Bowl by edging Michigan State 25-20.

The Buckeyes scored four touchdowns in the first three periods, but the stubborn Spartans stayed in contention all the way. It was the Ohio defense which again saved the day, checking every Michigan State bid in the final period.

The Buckeye attack was led by sophomore quarterbacks Rex

Kern and Ron Maciejewski. Kern set up the first two OSU scores before being taken out of the game in the second quarter with a sprained ankle. Coach Woody Hayes said Kern would miss next Saturday's game against Wisconsin.

In other action, Miami stayed alive in the Mid-American Conference title race by defeating Toledo 21-17. The win clinched a second-place finish for the Redskins and left the door open for a co-championship should Ohio U. falter against Bowling Green next week.

All of the touchdowns in the game were scored in the first half. Miami never mounted a scoring threat in the second half, and Toledo managed only a field goal.

Bowling Green clobbered Marshall 54-28, extending the Thundering Herd's winless streak to 19 games, longest in the country. Tailback Fred Matthews tallied four of the Falcons' touchdowns, while Zimpher caught two scoring passes.

Cincinnati dropped a 55-34 Missouri Valley Conference game to North Texas State in a wild contest played in a driving rain and winds gusting up to 25 miles an hour. North Texas' Steve Ramsey set two school records with five touchdown passes, completing 13 of 33 for 433 yards.

Marietta took second place in Ohio Conference standings by shutting out Mount Union 14-0 in a game which featured a 75-yard punt return by halfback George Sauer.

In other OAC games, Wooster scored three touchdowns in two minutes to defeat Hiram 40-17; Kenyon came from behind with 27 points in the fourth quarter to drop Oberlin 34-16; kicker Vern Albery provided the winning margin as Muskingum edged Denison 13-7; quarterback Norm Luckey threw three scoring passes to lead Otterbein past Heidelberg 40-21.

Wittenberg had a record 31 first downs in smothering Valparaiso 54-19 in a non-conference game, while Capital, also playing outside the loop, defeated Ashland 20-12 on three quick touchdowns in the third period. Youngstown grabbed an early lead and withstood a third quarter Southern Illinois rally for a 18-15 victory. Louisville was too much for Kent State, running over the MAC team 23-9. Akron shattered Illinois State's national third-place ranking in offense by pulverizing the Redbirds, 46-0.

In other action, Defiance whipped Central State 44-14; Centre dumped Wilmington 28-7; Allegheny clobbered Case Tech 60-18; John Carroll beat Bethany 22-13; Austin Peay crushed Findlay 27-20; Ohio Northern edged Bluffton 13-7; and Thiel rolled over Adelbert 40-0.

Raiders Take To Air, Defeat KC Chiefs, 38-21

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Kansas City Chiefs, who made a big run at the American Football League's Western Division title two weeks ago, now find the Oakland Raiders making a serious pass at it.

It was two weeks ago that the Chiefs, using a tight T formation and throwing only three passes, ground under the defending AFL champion Raiders and took the division lead.

With their backs against the wall—a loss would have put them two games behind Kansas City—the Raiders took to the air against a more balanced Chiefs' attack and cruised to a 38-21 victory last Sunday to all but even the race.

Daryl Lamonica was their passing fancy, connecting on 18 of 32 throws for a whopping 352 yards and two touchdowns when Oakland's running attack ground to a halt.

San Diego also relied on a game of pitch and catch for a last quarter 34-28 victory over Miami to keep up with Oakland.

The Raiders and Chargers are 6-2 behind Kansas City's 7-2.

In the Eastern Division, Jim Turner put a kick in the New York Jets' runaway hopes by booting a record-tying six field goals—the last two in the final 3½ minutes—for a 25-21 decision over Buffalo.

The victory maintained the Jets' 2½ game lead over Houston, which whipped Cincinnati 27-17, and three game bulge over Boston, a 35-14 victim of Denver in the other game.

With its running game only able to produce 70 yards, Oakland stuck with Lamonica before he left with an injured knee

Kathy Whitworth Wins Golf Clash

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) —Kathy Whitworth fired a final round 71 Sunday to win the Canyon Ladies Golf Classic worth $26,000 in prize money. Her total earnings of $3,300 gave her $33,501 for the year—tops among women golfers.

She surpassed Carol Mann, Buffalo, N.Y., who earned only $342 and now has $51,611.

Miss Whitworth' three-day total in the tourney was 218, two strokes better than three others. Donna Capone, Burbank, Calif., Shirley Englehorn, Caldwell, Idaho, and Mary Mills, Laurel, Miss., each shot 220s and won $2,053 each.

Lakers Bomb Suns, 127-109, With Wilt, Jerry Both Out

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The expansion Phoenix Suns don't figure to win many games against the Los Angeles Lakers and Wilt Chamberlain, Elgin Baylor and Jerry West, and now it turns out they can't beat the Lakers with Chamberlain and West gone.

That's the disappointment that confronted the Suns Sunday night when Chamberlain left to attend his father's funeral and West was out with a leg injury.

The Lakers still bombed the Suns 127-109 in their National Basketball Association game.

In other games, Boston held off Atlanta 123-103, the New York Knicks crushed Seattle 122-108 and San Diego topped Chicago 121-107.

In the only American Basketball Association contest the New York Mets beat Kentucky 112-103.

Baylor took up the scoring slack and everything else for the Lakers by scoring 40 points, pulling in 14 rebounds and passing for 12 assists.

Dick Van Arsdale had a career high 38 points for Phoenix.

John Havlicek came off the bench and scored 28 points for Boston, which jumped to a 20-point first quarter lead and led 62-54 at the half. Zelmo Beaty had 27 points for the Hawks.

San Diego turned a 58-48 halftime lead into a 17-point spread early in the third quarter and never was threatened as Elvin Hayes scored 30 points.

The Knicks jumped to an 8-0 lead and never trailed, although Seattle did pull even once at 59, before falling behind by 19. Cazzie Russell led the Knicks with 35 points.

New York Rangers Defeat Minnesota, 2-1

The New York Rangers continue to fatten up on expansion opposition but the new teams are a bitter pill for other National Hockey League clubs to swallow.

New York nipped Minnesota 2-1 Sunday night for its seventh straight victory over the West Division this year. But Philadelphia stung Montreal 3-2, completing a weekend sweep of the older East Division for the expansionist Flyers, and St. Louis rallied for a 4-4 tie against Detroit.

In Sunday's other games, Boston whipped Chicago 5-3 and Pittsburgh downed Oakland 3-1.

Ball Meeting Slated

The Circleville Youth Baseball Program board of directors will meet 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds.

The record average crowd in harness racing — 26,042 per night — was set at Roosevelt Raceway during 1964.

Leroy Kelly Leads Browns To 33-21 Win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "Has anybody here seen Kelly?"

The words of that old song haunted the San Francisco 49ers today.

They saw Leroy Kelly often, in fact too much, but they could not catch him Sunday at Kezar Stadium where the 200-pound thunderbolt led his Cleveland Browns to a 33-21 National Football League triumph.

In 27 carries, Kelly bolted and bulldozed for 174 yards — almost three times the ground gained by entire 49er backfield.

The five-year veteran beat his old career high of 163 against the Washington Redskins last year. It was the fifth time this season and 16th time in his career he exceeded 100 yards in a game.

He scored one touchdown with sheer power, hitting from two yards out right where the 49ers were massed for him and rolling defenders back across the goal line. He accounted for half of the 76 yards in the Browns' first touchdown march. And a 32-yard burst right up the middle set up one of Don Cockroft's four field goals.

Most of all Kelly was a frustration to 49ers quarterback John Brodie. Brodie completed 62 per cent of his 37 passes for 241 yards and three touchdowns but still lost the game.

He threw two scoring passes in the first half after Cockroft's first field goal and the 49ers led 14-3. Then Kelly went to work.

Houston, now 4-5, jumped off to a 10-0 first quarter advantage when Wayne Walker booted a 27-yard field goal and Don Trull guided the Oilers 90 yards in 16 plays with the payoff a four-yard toss to Al Reed.

Dale Livingston's 28-yard field goal early in the second period cut the Oilers lead to 10-3. And Wyche sparked a Bengal march minutes later to the Houston six. But the Oilers defense stiffened and Livingston missed a key 16-yard field goal try.

Trull, completing two passes to Jim Beirne for 55 yards, promptly steered the Oilers 80 yards in eight plays with Hoyle Granger crashing over from the one for a 17-10 halftime lead.

Cincinnati bounced back in the third period when Wyche completed eight straight passes for 64 yards and Robinson ran the final four to cut the deficit to 17-10.

But Trull, who finished with 13 of 20 aerials for 181 yards, connected four times in an eight-play, 69-yard drive culminated by a 10-yard touchdown strike to Mac Haik.

Walker's 41-yard field goal with 9:44 remaining closed out Houston's scoring and the Bengals couldn't reach paydirt again until Wyche and Robinson teamed up on the 68-yard TD that gave the partisan crowd of 24,012 a final thrill.

OU, Baldwin-Wallace Win 'Must' Grid Games

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio University clinched a trip to the Tangerine Bowl and Baldwin-Wallace won its first Ohio Conference championship in 31 years to highlight Ohio college football action Saturday.

Ohio U. assured itself of at least a tie for the Mid-American Conference title by dropping Western Michigan 34-27. The Bobcats now are 5-0 in the league with one game to go, but OU knocked off second-place Miami and thus gets the Dec. 27 call to Orlando, Fla.

Ohio U. came back from a 7-0 deficit to lead 14-10 at the half and then held a precarious 28-27 lead until, with only eight seconds left to play, quarterback Cleve Bryant scored from the one-yard line.

Big guns for the Bobcats were Dave LeVeck and Bob Houmard, with two touchdowns each.

Baldwin-Wallace squeaked out a 26-20 win over Ohio Wesleyan by stopping the Bishops on the two-yard line with two seconds left to play to win the Ohio Conference title.

It was the 10th straight win for Baldwin-Wallace and snapped Wesleyan's 14-game unbeaten string.

The game was locked in a 20-20 tie with 2:36 left to play in the fourth quarter when the Yellow Jackets scored the winning touchdown on three plays, highlighted by quarterback Mike Blake's 73-yard pass play to Vern Sharbaugh.

Ohio State, meanwhile, set aside another Big Ten foe in its drive for the Rose Bowl by edging Michigan State 25-20.

The Buckeyes scored four touchdowns in the first three periods, but the stubborn Spartans stayed in contention all the way. It was the Ohio defense which again saved the day, checking every Michigan State bid in the final period.

The Buckeye attack was led by sophomore quarterbacks Rex

Kern and Ron Maciejewski. Kern set up the first two OSU scores before being taken out of the game in the second quarter with a sprained ankle. Coach Woody Hayes said Kern would miss next Saturday's game against Wisconsin.

In other action, Miami stayed alive in the Mid-American Conference title race by defeating Toledo 21-17. The win clinched a second-place finish for the Redskins and left the door open for a co-championship should Ohio U. falter against Bowling Green next week.

All of the touchdowns in the game were scored in the first half. Miami never mounted a scoring threat in the second half, and Toledo managed only a field goal.

Bowling Green clobbered Marshall 54-28, extending the Thundering Herd's winless streak to 19 games, longest in the country. Tailback Fred Matthews tallied four of the Falcons' touchdowns, while Zim-pier caught two scoring passes.

Cincinnati dropped a 55-34 Missouri Valley Conference game to North Texas State in a wild contest played in a driving rain and winds gusting up to 25 miles an hour. North Texas' Steve Ramsey set two school records with five touchdown passes, completing 13 of 33 for 433 yards.

Marietta took second place in Ohio Conference standings by shutting out Mount Union 14-0 in a game which featured a 75-yard punt return by halfback George Sauer.

In other OC games, Wooster scored three touchdowns in two minutes to defeat Hiram 40-17; Kenyon came from behind with 27 points in the fourth quarter to drop Oberlin 34-16; kicker Vern Albery provided the winning margin as Muskingum edged Denison 13-7; quarterback Norm Lucky threw three scoring passes to lead Otterbein past Heidelberg 40-21.

Wittenberg had a record 31 first downs in smothering Valparaiso 54-19 in a non-conference game, while Capital, also playing outside the loop, defeated Ashland 20-12 on three quick touchdowns in the third period.

Youngstown grabbed an early lead and withstood a third quarter Southern Illinois rally for a 18-15 victory. Louisville was too much for Kent State, running over the MAC team 23-9. Akron shattered Illinois State's national third-place ranking in offense by pulverizing the Red-birds, 46-0.

In other action, Defiance whipped Central State 44-14; Centre dumped Wilmington 28-7; Allegheny clobbered Case Tech 60-18; John Carroll beat Bethany 22-13; Austin Peay crushed Findlay 27-20; Ohio Northern edged Bluffton 13-7; and Thiel rolled over Adelbert 40-0.

Raiders Take To Air, Defeat KC Chiefs, 38-21

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Kansas City Chiefs, who made a big run at the American Football League's Western Division title two weeks ago, now find the Oakland Raiders making a serious pass at it.

It was two weeks ago that the Chiefs, using a tight T formation and throwing only three passes, ground under the defending AFL champion Raiders and took the division lead.

With their backs against the wall—a loss would have put them two games behind Kansas City—the Raiders took to the air against a more balanced Chiefs' attack and cruised to a 38-21 victory last Sunday to all but even the race.

Daryl Lamonica was their passing fancy, connecting on 18 of 32 throws for a whopping 352 yards and two touchdowns when Oakland's running attack ground to a halt.

San Diego also relied on a game of pitch and catch for a last quarter 34-28 victory over Miami to keep up with Oakland.

The Raiders and Chargers are 6-2 behind Kansas City's 7-2.

In the Eastern Division, Jim Turner put a kick in the New York Jets' runaway hopes by booting a record-tying six field goals—the last two in the final 3½ minutes—for a 25-21 decision over Buffalo.

The victory maintained the Jets' 2½ game lead over Houston, which whipped Cincinnati 27-17, and three game bulge over Boston, a 35-14 victim of Denver in the other game.

With its running game only able to produce 70 yards, Oakland stuck with Lamonica before he left with an injured knee

Kathy Whitworth Wins Golf Clash

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)

—Texan Kathy Whitworth fired a final round 71 Sunday to win the Canyon Ladies Golf Classic worth $26,000 in prize money.

Her total earnings of $3,300 gave her $53,501 for the year—tops among women golfers.

She surpassed Carol Mann, Buffalo, N.Y., who earned only $342 and now has $51,611.

Miss Whitworth' three-day total in the tourney was 218, two strokes better than three others. Donna Capone, Burbank, Calif., Shirley Englehorn, Caldwell, Idaho, and Mary Mills, Laurel, Miss., each shot 220s and won $2,053 each.

Lakers Bomb Suns, 127-109, With Wilt, Jerry Both Out

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The expansion Phoenix Suns don't figure to win many games against the Los Angeles Lakers and Wilt Chamberlain, Elgin Baylor and Jerry West, and now it turns out they can't beat the Lakers with Chamberlain and West gone.

That's the disappointment that confronted the Suns Sunday night when Chamberlain left to attend his father's funeral and West was out with a leg injury.

The Lakers still bombed the Suns 127-109 in their National Basketball Association game.

In other games, Boston held off Atlanta 123-103, the New York Knicks crushed Seattle 122-108 and San Diego topped Chicago 121-107.

In the only American Basketball Association contest the New York Mets beat Kentucky 112-103.

Baylor took up the scoring slack and everything else for the Lakers by scoring 40 points, pulling in 14 rebounds and passing for 12 assists.

Dick Van Arsdale had a career high 38 points for Phoenix. John Havlicek came off the bench and scored 28 points for Boston, which jumped to a 20-point first quarter lead and led 62-54 at the half. Zelfo Beatty had 27 points for the Hawks.

San Diego turned a 58-48 halftime lead into a 17-point spread early in the third quarter and never was threatened as Elvin Hayes scored 30 points.

The Knicks jumped to an 8-0 lead and never trailed, although Seattle did pull even once at 59, before falling behind by 19. Cazzie Russell led the Knicks with 35 points.

Ball Meeting Slated

The Circleville Youth Baseball Program board of directors will meet 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds.

Bengals Bow To Oilers 27-17; Brown Downcast

By HAL PARIS

Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP) — Paul Brown continues to be a gracious but disappointed loser.

"I die about two inches every game," Brown conceded Sunday after his Cincinnati Bengals bowed to the Houston Oilers 27-17.

It was the sixth straight setback for the American Football League expansion team and sent the last-place Bengals skidding to a 2-7 record.

"This reminds me of the Baby Bucks of 1943. They try very hard but keep losing," Brown said. He was referring to his last year as head coach at Ohio State when the Buckeyes finished with a 3-6 record.

On a cheerful note, Brown was more than satisfied with the performances of halfback Paul Robinson and rookie quarterback Sam Wyche.

"Robinson is a fine football player who gets better every day. He's a bubbly, enthusiastic competitor."

Robinson, a swift, hard runner, ripped Houston's defense for 156 yards in 21 carries and scored two touchdowns.

His most sensational run came on the last play of the game, when the former Arizona flash gathered in Wyche's screen pass, raced down the sidelines and cut back to the middle on the way to a 68-yard touchdown scamper.

Wyche, promoted from the taxi squad last week to replace injured Dewey Warren, was thrown five times for losses totaling 33 yards. But the rookie

Circleville Junior High '11' Ends Season With 44-0 Win

The Circleville Junior High Football team defeated Hamilton Twp., 44-0, Saturday to cap an undefeated season.

Coached by John Glanton and his assistant Darrell Young, the Tiger seventh and eighth squad has defeated Chillicothe Mt. Logan, Lancaster Stansbury, Lancaster Thomas Ewing, Lancaster General Sherman and Hamilton.

At halftime of Saturday's game, the second string players of both Hamilton and Circleville had a brief skirmish, with the little Tigers winning, 8-0.

Dave Truex led the Tiger Cubs to their fifth victory, scoring four touchdowns on runs of 30, one, seven and 50 yards and passing to Brian Barthelmas for a fifth touchdown.

THE sixth TD for the Tigers was a 40-yard pass play from Greg Hoskins to David Pontious.

Extra points were four by David Pontious, two by Gary

Mogan and two on a Hoskins to Barthelmas pass.

David Webb, Circleville's halfback, caught four passes that kept Tiger scoring drives going.

The line did an excellent job of blocking according to Glanton.

Starting linemen are Tom Taylor and Bill Halstenberg, ends; Pete Bowers and Greg Dearth, guards; Tom Frericks and Keith Davis, tackles; and Dale Bost, center.

Dayton Defeats Muskegon, 3-0

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Dayton posted its fifth straight International Hockey League victory at home Sunday night, drowning Muskegon 3-0.

After a scoreless first period, the Gems hit twice in the second period on goals by Don Westbrook and Al Beaula and in the final period on a goal by Cliff Bristow.

Southern Cal Tops Oregon, 20-13

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Southern California continues on course to Pasadena and the Rose Bowl. The itinerary thankfully doesn't include Oregon. All that prevented the top-ranked Trojan express from becoming derailed Saturday was a key pass interference call that set up Steve Sogge's three-yard touchdown pass to Bob Klein with 1:13 left for a 20-13 victory over underdog Oregon.

The Webfoots limited O.J. Simpson to 67 yards, including a one-yard touchdown run. But Sogge took up the slack with two scoring passes, hitting Jim Lawrence with a nine-yarder in the first period.

"I think I'll stay away from Oregon from now on," Simpson said. "Nothing good has happened for two years now."

Last season, Oregon State handed Southern Cal its only setback, a 3-0 loss at Corvallis.

Many of the nation's Top Twenty college football teams had their problems. Second-ranked Ohio State held off No. 16 Michigan State 25-20, third-ranked Kansas downed Colo-do 27-14 and No. 4 Penn State squeaked by Army 28-24. Tennessee, No. 5, rolled past UCLA 42-18 and sixth-ranked Purdue walloped Illinois 35-17. But seventh-ranked Georgia was held to a 10-10 tie with No. 15 Houston and eighth-ranked California fumbled its way to a 7-7 deadlock with Washington.

Rounding out the Top Ten, Michigan, ranked ninth, crushed Northwestern 35-0 and No. 10 Missouri clobbered Oklahoma State 42-7.

The next 10 teams were not so fortunate, although No. 11 Texas plastered Southern Methodist, No. 13, 38-7 and 12th-ranked Notre Dame thrashed Navy 45-14.

But 14th-ranked Louisiana State fell to Mississippi 27-24, No. 17 Arkansas nipped Texas A&M 25-22, 18th-rated Florida State lost to Virginia Tech 40-22, Ohio University, ranked 19th, outlasted Western Michigan 34-27 and Florida, No. 20, bowed to Auburn 24-13.

Ohio State took a 19-7 halftime lead but needed two late fumble recoveries to hold off Michigan State. Sophomore quarterback

Rex Kern suffered a severe ankle sprain and may miss next Saturday's game with Wisconsin.

Kansas used the 162-yard, two-touchdown running of John Riggins and Bill Bell's two field goals to get by Colorado. Penn State took advantage of Army's mistakes, including a field goal attempt which the Cadets failed to cover, for a hard-fought triumph. Tight end Ted Kwalick sealed the victory by running 53 yards with an onside kickoff in the fourth period.

Bears Beat Packers, 13-10, On Free Kick By Percival

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Mac Percival booted a 43-yard field goal on a rarely-invoked free kick with 26 seconds to play Sunday, giving the Chicago Bears a 13-10 victory over the struggling Green Bay Packers.

The NFL champs, who had spent most of the afternoon chasing Gale Sayers up and down Lambeau Field, stood by helplessly as Percival kicked the winning three-pointer after Chicago Coach Vince Dooley went for the free kick option.

An NFL rule permits a free kick, punt or placement, without opposition after one team makes a fair catch of a punt. So, when Cecil Turner fielded Donny Anderson's short punt on the Green Bay 43, Dooley called the shot—and Percival delivered.

"It's my second biggest thrill," said Percival, whose toe has helped the Bears reel off three straight victories and climb back into contention for the Central Division title. "Last week was the biggest."

The 28-year-old kicking specialist booted a 47-yard field goal with three seconds remaining the previous Sunday to beat Minnesota 26-24. "That was the first time I had ever won a game for the Bears," he said.

Chicago, 4-4, is tied for the Central lead with the Vikings, who whipped Washington 27-14 Sunday. The Packers and the Detroit Lions, who bowed to Los Angeles 10-7, are one half game back at 3-4-1.

Baltimore battered the New York Giants 26-0, Dallas trimmed New Orleans 17-3, Cleveland topped San Francisco 33-21, St. Louis trounced Philadelphia 45-17 and Pittsburgh drubbed Atlanta 41-21 in other games.

Sayers ran through the Packers for 205 yards—his biggest ground-gaining binge as a pro, but he almost wore goat horns after fumbling on the Chicago 39 midway in the final quarter with the game tied 10-10.

Packer defensive back Herb Adderley grabbed the ball and raced to the 14, but the Bears held and Chuck Mercein's field goal attempt sailed wide.

Minutes later, Percival was on target with his 11th field goal in 12 attempts in the Bears' last three games. He kicked a 10-yarder in the second period for a string of 10 without a miss, but had another three-point bid blocked by Lee Roy Caffey early in the fourth period.

STILL STARRING—Pro football's quarterbacking star, Bart Starr of the Green Bay Packers, leads the NFL in passing department again.

Abandoned Cars Plague Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland's worst litter bugs aren't the guys who dump their car ash trays on city streets—they're the guys who throw the whole car away.

Cleveland police say the problem of abandoned cars has created a costly and awkward problem for the city and has resulted in an increasing number of complaints from citizens.

Last year, the police tow-truck unit hauled away 3,541 abandoned cars. In 1957, only 200 motorists walked away from their cars, leaving them to the police or vandals.

Over 100 Persons Killed In Smashing Italian Flood

ROME (AP) — Rescue teams battled mud and floods today to search for survivors of weekend floods and landslides that cut a path of death and destruction along the southern edge of the Italian Alps.

More than 100 dead were counted and officials feared the final toll may go much higher, exceeding the 113 who died in the floods in Florence and Venice two years ago today. That was the worst flood in modern Italian history.

The prefecture at Vercelli, at the apex of a tragic triangle formed by three overflowing rivers northeast of Turin, announced that 91 bodies had been found in that province, the worst hit area in the disaster zone.

At least 13 others were missing, and 10 other dead were reported in other sections of northern Italy.

Hundreds of army and civilian rescue workers struggled over muddy washed-out roadbeds to reach the disaster area in Vercelli province still being swept by heavy rains this morning.

"It looked like some giant steam roller had smashed through the valley," said one pilot who flew over the Mosso valley in the foothills of the Alps, where 64 persons were smothered in the rubble of their houses. The section is a wool-producing region.

Dozens of factories, farm buildings, houses and cars were lost in the landslides which rainstorm sent rumbling down north of Turin.

Venice had its fourth highest water in 40 years. The lagoon waters surged over the banks of the canals and sent inhabitants into their boats and boats.

The seas pounded both Italian coasts, doing damage all along the shores and tearing boats from their moorings, even inside the port of Genoa.

About 2,000 army troops were dispatched to the landslide area with supplies and amphibious rescue equipment.

Republican . . .

New York—Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits has the Liberal party endorsement and is expected to defeat Democratic challenger Paul O'Dwyer and Conservative James L. Buckley.

North Carolina—Democratic Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. is expected to win re-election over Republican Robert V. Somers.

North Dakota—Republican Sen. Milton R. Young, a 22-year veteran, is expected to defeat Democratic Fargo Mayor Herschel Lashkowitz.

Ohio—Republican Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe is favored to defeat former Democratic Rep. John J. Gilligan, who beat Sen. Frank J. Lausche in the primary. But some observers say the race will be close.

Oklahoma—Democratic Sen. A.S. "Mike" Monroney could be beaten by Republican former Gov. Henry Bellmon.

Oregon — Republicans and some independent observers say veteran Democratic Sen. Wayne L. Morse could be upset by Rep. Robert W. Packwood.

Pennsylvania — Democratic Sen. Joseph S. Clark once had a clear lead but Republicans say Rep. Richard S. Schweiker has strong support in the western and rural areas.

South Carolina—Democratic Sen. Ernest F. Hollings is favored for re-election. But Republicans say their candidate, former state Sen. Marshall Parker, will be helped by Sen. Strom Thurmond's drive for Nixon.

South Dakota—The polls show Sen. George S. McGovern leading but this is a traditional Republican state and former Gov. Archie Gubbrud could win on a strong Nixon tide.

Utah—Democrats think Republican Sen. Wallace F. Bennett can be upset by Milton L. Weilenmann, state development director.

Vermont — Veteran Republican Sen. George D. Aiken virtually won re-election in the primary. He won both the Republican and Democratic nominations.

Washington—Democratic Sen. Warren G. Magnuson is expected to win re-election over Republican state Sen. Jack Metcalf.

Wisconsin—Democratic Sen. Gaylord Nelson could be hurt by a strong Republican vote but polls indicate his challenger, state Sen. Jerris Leonard, is still relatively unknown to voters.

Mental Patient Held In Murder

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A walkaway patient from Haworth State Hospital was held in Cleveland Sunday night for questioning in the strangling death of a fellow inmate at the Sagamore Hills mental institution Saturday.

The body of 15-year-old William Petrovic of Doylestown (Wayne County) was discovered shortly after the 25-year-old patient—who lived in a cottage with the boy—disappeared.

The Turtle, a one-man submarine, in 1776 made an unsuccessful attempt to sink a British man of war in New York Harbor.

Expect Demos To Control House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Surveys indicate the Democrats will retain their control of the House of Representatives by a narrow margin in a year when it appears that the House may have a chance to choose the next president.

But if this should happen—and the possibility still remains a long shot—there is no guarantee that Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey will win the presidency, particularly if he runs behind in the popular vote.

With the polls showing Humphrey cutting into Republican Richard M. Nixon's early lead and the uncertainty over the effect of George C. Wallace's third-party effort, there is a chance that no candidate will get the necessary 270 electoral votes to win.

Many observers believe that if Humphrey gains enough to deny Nixon the magic 270 but not enough to attain it himself—switches among the electors will settle the issue without recourse to the House.

Switches by Wallace's electors could be the determining factor.

The House has elected only two presidents, Thomas Jefferson in 1801 and John Quincy Adams in 1825.

A state by state Associated Press survey last week indicated the Democrats would keep control of the House, but by a closer margin than the present 245 to 187 edge.

The survey, taken before President Johnson announced the North Vietnam bombing halt, showed Democrats leading in 231 districts, 13 more than would be needed for bare control of the 435-member House.

Humphrey's uncertainty in the House was seen in the AP survey which turned up at least 85 likely winners who said they would support the popular vote winner for president even if he were not of their party.

If the House has to elect the president, each state will cast one vote, regardless of the size of its delegation.

The members from each state would caucus to determine how that vote would be cast. If the delegation is evenly divided or otherwise unable to agree, precedent would be for the state to cast a blank vote.

Twenty-six state votes are required for election. The AP survey showed that if the leading candidates for the House were elected Nixon would stand to get the votes of 17 states, Humphrey of 12 and Wallace of one.

The votes of Hawaii, Kansas and Nevada would be determined by the popular vote in each state. Montana would be deadlocked.

With 16 state delegations undecided—whether because of tossup races or the expressed positions of candidates—the outcome of a possible presidential election in the House was left completely clouded.

Evangelistic Services To Be Held

REV. O. M. MILLER

Gerald Stemm, minister of The Northridge Church of Christ, Northridge Rd., announces that O. M. Miller, minister of The First Christian Church of Russell, Ky., is coming to the local church to conduct special evangelistic services.

His first sermon will be delivered to the local congregation 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 10 at the regular worship service time.

Rev. Miller attended Kentucky Christian College and his ministry involves 16 years of continuous work in his home church. From an attendance of 85 it has grown to an average of 440.

Messages will be brought each evening at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 10-15. An invitation is extended to everyone in Circleville and the surrounding community to attend any or all of the meetings.

Governorships

sending National Guardsmen and Highway Patrolmen to quell rioting last April.

Republican candidate Lawrence K. Roos sticks mainly to charges the state isn't meeting needs of education, mental health, urban affairs and industrial development.

South Dakota's Democratic candidate Robert Chamberlin proposes a state income tax while his GOP opponent, Atty. Gen. Frank Farrar, isn't saying what he'd do about taxes.

In races mainly based on party line arguments:

—Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller campaigns for re-election as Arkansas' governor against Democrat Marion H. Crank.

—Dean C. Davis tries to recapture the Vermont statehouse for the GOP in that traditionally Republican state against Lt. Gov. John J. Daly.

—Former Democratic Gov. Sam Goddard seeks to get back the job he lost to GOP Gov. Jack Williams in 1966.

—U.S. Rep. Arch Moore seeks to become the second GOP governor of West Virginia in 40 years, opposing Democrat James M. Sprouse.

Some Democratic gubernatorial candidates are disassociating themselves from the presidential race, apparently fearing they may trip over Humphrey's coattails if he loses.

These include Lt. Gov. Preston Smith of Texas who is opposed by the bid of Paul Eggers to become the state's first GOP governor in 100 years; Democratic Lt. Gov. Bob Scott of North Carolina in his battle with GOP congressman Jim Gardner, and Docking in the three-way Kansas race.

Washington's GOP Gov. Dan Evans and Democratic Atty. Gen. John J. O'Connell both favor a state income tax but argue over whether it should be a single-rate tax as Evans proposes or a graduated one as O'Connell recommends.

In Utah, both Democratic Gov. Calvin Rampton and GOP opponent Carl Buehner oppose a measure to legalize liquor by the drink, the hottest issue in a state where the Mormon church is influential. But Rampton says the people should at least have a chance to vote on it.

New Hampshire's Democratic candidate Emile R. Bussiere promises to veto any state income or sales tax measures that might come out of the Republican controlled legislature. But state House Speaker Walter R. Peterson, the GOP candidate, refuses to make such a pledge. Peterson says he would avoid higher taxes by tighter fiscal controls.

Fabian Chavez, Democratic contender in New Mexico seeks to become the state's first Mexican-American governor by unseating GOP Gov. David F. Carrasco in a contest with strong ethnic overtones.

Republican Gov. Frank Chafee of Rhode Island seeks to fend off the challenge of Democrat Frank Licht.

BATTLE SCAR Hubert Humphrey sports a bandage on his hand from shaking hands and a big smile as he stops in Elizabeth, N.J., during close of his campaign.

Over 100 Persons Killed In Smashing Italian Flood

ROME (AP) — Rescue teams battled mud and floods today to search for survivors of weekend floods and landslides that cut a path of death and destruction along the southern edge of the Italian Alps.

More than 100 dead were counted and officials feared the final toll may go much higher, exceeding the 113 who died in the floods in Florence and Venice two years ago today. That was the worst flood in modern Italian history.

The prefecture at Vercelli, at the apex of a tragic triangle formed by three overflowing rivers northeast of Turin, announced that 91 bodies had been found in that province, the worst hit area in the disaster zone.

At least 13 others were missing, and 10 other dead were reported in other sections of northern Italy.

Hundreds of army and civilian rescue workers struggled over muddy washed-out roadbeds to reach the disaster area in Vercelli province still being swept by heavy rains this morning.

"It looked like some giant steamroller had smashed through the valley," said one pilot who flew over the Mosso valley in the foothills of the Alps, where 64 persons were smothered in the rubble of their houses. The section is a wool-producing region.

Dozens of factories, farm buildings, houses and cars were lost in the landslides which rainstorm sent rumbling down north of Turin.

Venice had its fourth highest water in 40 years. The lagoon waters surged over the banks of the canals and sent inhabitants into their boats and boats.

The seas pounded both Italian coasts, doing damage all along the shores and tearing boats from their moorings, even inside the port of Genoa.

About 2,000 army troops were dispatched to the landslide area with supplies and amphibious rescue equipment.

New York—Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits has the Liberal party endorsement and is expected to defeat Democratic challenger Paul O'Dwyer and Conservative James L. Buckley.

North Carolina—Democratic Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. is expected to win re-election over Republican Robert V. Somers.

North Dakota—Republican Sen. Milton R. Young, a 22-year veteran, is expected to defeat Democratic Fargo Mayor Herschel Lashkowitz.

Ohio—Republican Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe is favored to defeat former Democratic Rep. John J. Gilligan, who beat Sen. Frank J. Lausche in the primary. But some observers say the race will be close.

Oklahoma—Democratic Sen. A.S. "Mike" Monroney could be beaten by Republican former Gov. Henry Bellmon.

Oregon — Republicans and some independent observers say veteran Democratic Sen. Wayne L. Morse could be upset by Rep. Robert W. Packwood.

Pennsylvania — Democratic Sen. Joseph S. Clark once had a clear lead but Republicans say Rep. Richard S. Schweiker has strong support in the western and rural areas.

South Carolina—Democratic Sen. Ernest F. Hollings is favored for re-election. But Republicans say their candidate, former state Sen. Marshall Parker, will be helped by Sen. Strom Thurmond's drive for Nixon.

South Dakota—The polls show Sen. George S. McGovern leading but this is a traditional Republican state and former Gov. Archie Gubbrud could win on a strong Nixon tide.

Utah—Democrats think Republican Sen. Wallace F. Bennett can be upset by Milton L. Wellenmann, state development director.

Vermont — Veteran Republican Sen. George D. Aiken virtually won re-election in the primary. He won both the Republican and Democratic nominations.

Washington—Democratic Sen. Warren G. Magnuson is expected to win re-election over Republican state Sen. Jack Metcalf.

Wisconsin—Democratic Sen. Gaylord Nelson could be hurt by a strong Republican vote but polls indicate his challenger, state Sen. Jerris Leonard, is still relatively unknown to voters.

Mental Patient Held In Murder

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A walkaway patient from Haworth State Hospital was held in Cleveland Sunday night for questioning in the strangling death of a fellow inmate at the Sagamore Hills mental institution Saturday.

The body of 15-year-old William Petrovic of Doylestown (Wayne County) was discovered shortly after the 25-year-old patient—who lived in a cottage with the boy—disappeared.

Expect Demos To Control House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Surveys indicate the Democrats will retain their control of the House of Representatives by a narrow margin in a year when it appears that the House may have a chance to choose the next president.

But if this should happen—and the possibility still remains a long shot—there is no guarantee that Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey will win the presidency, particularly if he runs behind in the popular vote.

Evangelistic Services To Be Held

REV. O. M. MILLER

Gerald Stemm, minister of The Northridge Church of Christ, Northridge Rd., announces that O. M. Miller, minister of The First Christian Church of Russell, Ky., is coming to the local church to conduct special evangelistic services.

His first sermon will be delivered to the local congregation 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 10 at the regular worship service time.

Rev. Miller attended Kentucky Christian College and his ministry involves 16 years of continuous work in his home church. From an attendance of 85 it has grown to an average of 440.

Messages will be brought each evening at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 10-15. An invitation is extended to everyone in Circleville and the surrounding community to attend any or all of the meetings.

Most of the commercially marked codfish is in the form of frozen fillets and fish sticks. But the eggs are ground as bait for sardines; cod liver oil is extracted from the liver, and the air bladder is used in making ising glass.

WOMEN SUFFER WITH BLADDER IRRITATION

Common Kidney or Bladder Irritations affect twice as many women as men, often causing tenderness and nervousness from frequent, burning, itching urination. Secondly, you may lose sleep and have headaches, backaches and feel older, tired, depressed. In such cases, CYSTEX usually brings relaxing comfort by curbing germs in acid urine, and easing pain. With the polls showing Humphrey cutting into Republican Richard M. Nixon's early lead and the uncertainty over the effect of George C. Wallace's third-party effort, there is a chance that no candidate will get the necessary 270 electoral votes to win.

Many observers believe that if Humphrey gains enough to deny Nixon the magic 270 but not enough to attain it himself—switches among the electors will settle the issue without recourse to the House.

Switches by Wallace's electors could be the determining factor.

The House has elected only two presidents, Thomas Jefferson in 1801 and John Quincy Adams in 1825.

A state by state Associated Press survey last week indicated the Democrats would keep control of the House, but by a closer margin than the present 245 to 187 edge.

The survey, taken before President Johnson announced the North Vietnam bombing halt, showed Democrats leading in 231 districts, 13 more than would be needed for bare control of the 435-member House.

Humphrey's uncertainty in the House was seen in the AP survey which turned up at least 85 likely winners who said they would support the popular vote winner for president even if he were not of their party.

If the House has to elect the president, each state will cast one vote, regardless of the size of its delegation.

The members from each state would caucus to determine how that vote would be cast. If the delegation is evenly divided or otherwise unable to agree, precedent would be for the state to cast a blank vote.

Twenty-six state votes are required for election.

The AP survey showed that if the leading candidates for the House were elected Nixon would stand to get the votes of 17 states, Humphrey of 12 and Wallace of one.

The votes of Hawaii, Kansas and Nevada would be determined by the popular vote in each state. Montana would be deadlocked.

With 16 state delegations undecided—whether because of tossup races or the expressed positions of candidates—the outcome of a possible presidential election in the House was left completely clouded.
